New Project For Hancock

$171,850 Bid On Children's Home

Low bids totaling $171,850 for construction of a new Children's Home for Hancock County, shown here in the architect's conception, were opened by the home's Board of Directors at a meeting Monday night in the Court-house in New Cumberland.

Floyd C. Cox, East Liverpool contractor, submitted the low bid for the general contract work, and also for heating work of the proposed, modern building.

The board, with Architect Ray Shaw of Weirton and Miss Callie Tsapis of Chester, legal advisor, present, opened and studied bids and deferred award of contracts for a week to allow time for further study.

A meeting has been scheduled for next Monday night when William C. Graham, chairman of the Board of Directors and president of County Court, is to announce the board's decisions on awarding of contracts.

Cost of the dormitory-type building, to be erected adjacent to the present home on Gas Valley Rd. in the Pugh-town area, is expected to be in the neighborhood of $215,000 to $220,000, the board said.

Although low bids totaled $171,850 the architect's 6-per cent fee, and expenses of purchasing new beds, coolers and other special equipment, is expected to hike the overall expense to the higher figure.

Cox's bid of $139,887 was the lowest of six received for the general construction.

The other bidders were Pot- ters Construction Co. of East Liverpool, $140,899; Byrum Construction Co. of Wheeling, $143,880; Guy Johnston Lum- ber Co. of Steubenville, $156,850; Grubb Construction Co. of Pittsburgh, $157,610, and Funk Building Corp. of Pitts- burgh, $204,492.

Only two firms submitted bids for the heating work, and Cox was low with $8,300, fol- lowed by Scheneler & Sli- gar, Inc., $8,736.

The Youngstown Plumbing Co. was the lowest of four bidders for the plumbing, $10,220. Other bids were from Cox, $11,800; Greco Plumbing & Heating Co. of Weirton, $13,340, and Cattrell Plum- bing & Heating Co. of Toronto, $19,320.

However, each firm sub- mitted alternate plans and Cox was the lowest at $4,650, followed by Youngstown Plumbing, $5,139; Greco, $5,960, and Cattrell, $8,350.

There were four bidders for the electrical work, American Electric Co. of Wheeling, $13,443; Sayre Electric of East Liverpool, $13,552; Keller Electrical Co., $14,685, and Tri-State Electric Co. of East Liverpool, $15,538.

Downed U.S. Airman Fair, Report Says

Request For His Release Denied, Air Force Reveals

BERLIN (AP)—An American flier injured in the downing of a U.S. reconnaissance bomber over East Germany last week is reported in fair condition but the Russians refuse to release him.

The flight surgeon, Capt. John I. Monroe, 28, of West End, N.C., "requested that Lt. Welch be released from the hospital for return to U.S. control, but his request was denied," the Air Force said.

The Soviets refused to give any information on Capt. David I. Holland, 35, of Holland, Minn. and Capt. Melvin J. Kessler, 30, of Philadelphia, who parachuted with Welch when their RB-66B was shot down last Tues- day.

Communist sources have indicated the three fliers might be tried as spies.

Monroe spent an hour and 20 minutes with Welch. Magdeburg is an industrial town 80 miles southwest of Berlin and 20 miles south of Gardelegen, where the plane was shot down.

Merger Plan For Midland Schools Eyed

The Midland Board of Edu- cation Monday night went on record as favoring a study of the feasibility of merger with the Western Beaver School Dis- trict.

The resolution presented by the property chairman, Mich- ael Raich, stated:

"Because the state is seeking to enlarge school district ad- ministrative units as expressed in Act 299, and because of de- creased enrollment in the Mid- land schools with increasing per pupil costs, this board goes on record as being desirous of giving thoughtful consideration to the proposition of merging with another administrative unit, and that the Beaver County School Board be informed that the Midland School District (Ad- ministrative Unit 14) desired to

Warships, Troops On Move

Turkey Supports Inonu On Cyprus

ANKARA, Turkey (AP)—The Turkish Parliament gave Premier Ismet Inonu full backing in the Cyprus crisis Monday night as Inonu's government stepped up military activity again after tension had ap- peared to be easing.

Warships and troops were on the move once more around the port of Iskenderun 100 miles from Cyprus. Inonu warned Turkey would step in if the United Nations did not protect the Turkish Cypriot minority on the Mediterranean island.

Parliament voted Inonu full powers to act in the Cyprus crisis, and his Foreign Ministry announced that Turkey will abrogate a 1930 treaty under which nearly 10,000 Greek nationals living in Turkey enjoy special residence and trade privileges. It said the decree would go into effect Sept. 16.

In a speech to members of his party in Parliament, Inonu as- sailed Greece for siding with the Greek Cypriots. He warned Turkey would intervene if the U.N. peace force being mobil- ized fails to meet Turkish condi- tions for keeping peace on Cy- prus.

"Such an outcome may cause international events as well as a clash between Turkey and Greece," he said. "The Greek government's behavior, making it seem it is on the side of the Greek Cypriot bands and loo- ters, has turned these two friend- ly nations against each other."

"No matter what the conse- quences may be, we shall use our rights of intervention should the necessity arise to safeguard the life, honor and property of our Turkish brothers."

After each flareup on Cyprus, Turkish warships loaded with troops set forth from Iskenderun. The last show of strength came Friday when Turkey warned the Greek Cypriot gov- ernment it would intervene un- less the killing of Turkish Cy- priots stopped.

Greece has warned Turkey that if it steps in, the Greek government also will act. Greek Ambassador Dimitri Bitsios told newsmen at the United Nations that Greek troops alerted when Turkey made its threat Friday are still in a state of readiness.

Railroads Optimistic Crisis Can Be Avoided

WASHINGTON (AP)—A rail- road spokesman who warned that the nation was possibly on the verge of a vast rail strike says the railroads now "are optimistic that a crisis can be avoided."

If Draft Was 'Sincere, Honest'

Scranton Says He'd Take Bid For Vice President

WASHINGTON (AP)—Penn- sylvania Gov. William W. Scranton says he would accept the Republican nomination for vice president—but only if a "sincere and honest draft" de- veloped.

He had already expressed a similar attitude in regard to the GOP presidential nomi- nation.

In an interview with The As- sociated Press two weeks ago, Scranton indicated that he would not accept the No. 2 spot on the GOP ticket under any conditions.

He clarified his position on the vice presidency in a televi- sion interview Monday night on a Harrisburg, Pa., station. Scranton said: "My feeling about this is identical to the presidency. I do not want to run for national office, and I am not interested in doing so. I have said I would accept an honest and sincere draft and that I would do."

Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwa- ter continued to stump through California, seeking votes in the state's June 2 primary, in which 86 delegate votes in the GOP National Convention will be at stake.

Goldwater's chief announced rival, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, remained in Al- bany where he hoped to prod a restive state legislature into approving his program. In se- parate statements, Rockefeller attacked Goldwater and Presi- dent Johnson.

In Miami, Fla., vacationing Richard M. Nixon criticized President Johnson's foreign pol- icy and said it is time for plans "to get rid of" Cuban Premier Fidel Castro.

De Gaulle's Address Due In Mexico

Continues Drive To Boost Influence In This Hemisphere

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Presi- dent Charles de Gaulle con- tinues his drive to increase French influence in the West- ern Hemisphere with an address today before a joint session of the Mexican Congress.

The French president's schedule included a second round of talks with his host, President Adolfo Lopez Mateos. De Gaulle scored a personal triumph on his arrival Monday with a speech in excellent Span- ish, delivered from the presi- dential balcony of the National Palace to 300,000 persons pack- ing the plaza.

Newsmen estimated 700,000 people lined the route of the two presidents from the airport.

De Gaulle was the first for- eigner invited to speak from the balcony. Even President John F. Kennedy, who received a more tumultuous welcome in Mexico City two years ago, was not accorded this honor.

Both De Gaulle and Lopez Mateos talked of alliance be- tween their countries. Both stressed that alliance would hurt no one. This apparently was intended to quiet U.S. un- easiness about De Gaulle's aims on his visit to Mexico and his projected tour of Brazil, Uru- guay, Argentina and Peru in September.

"No doctrine, no quarrel, no divergent interest separate us," De Gaulle said. "Quite to the contrary, we have many rea- sons that urge us to draw closer to each other."

He compared Mexico's long revolutionary fight for freedom with France's own struggle for "liberty and dignity of man."

Huge Brush Fires Destroy 23 Homes Near Los Angeles

Hope Held For Control Of Flames

7 Other Residences Damaged; Several Firemen Injured

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Howl- ing winds which whipped three brush fires into a destructive holocaust subsided today, giving firemen hope of getting the upper hand over the blazes.

The winds were down to around 35 miles an hour early today, with a Weather Bureau forecast of a further drop.

Fire officials said that will permit use of planes dumping fire-retardant borate solution on the hot spots north of Los Angeles. Planes could not be used Monday when the winds gusted as high as 100 m.p.h.

The multimillion-dollar fires lashed through expensive sub- urban residential areas border- ing Glendale, Burbank, Pas-adena and Newhall.

The fires scorched at least 10,000 acres in all.

Fire officials, rechecking the damage, said at least 23 homes were destroyed, and seven badly damaged.

No deaths were reported. Sev- eral firemen were injured fight- ing the blaze in the rugged can- yons and ridges.

Thousands of homes were evacuated in areas near the two major blazes adjoining Burbank and Glendale, about 12 miles north of downtown Los Angeles. Oil fields were endangered by the other fire, near Newhall.

Fire officials pinned hopes for stamping out the blazes on be- haviour of the hot desert winds that have reached gusts up to 100 miles an hour since the fire started about 5:30 a.m. Mon- day. Sparks from power lines downed by the howling winds were blamed for starting sev- eral small fires which quickly joined and raced over the brush-covered slopes.

Officials called the blaze the worst in the area since the Bel Air - Brentwood disaster des- troyed 484 homes and caused an estimated $25 million damage in 1961.

About 800 men and 175 pieces of firefighting equipment bat- tled the blazes but crews report- ed they could do little except try to save homes along the perimeter.

Hundreds of dwellings were saved as firemen and residents stopped the flames just short of their property.

The flames ripping through the tinder-dry brush sent bill- owing towers of smoke swirl- ing southwestward over Los An- geles and beach communities.

The turbulent winds prevent- ed use of aircraft often used to drop fire-retarding borate solu- tion.

Democrats In Favor, GOP Wary

Questioning Eye Trained On Anti-Poverty Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—Con- gress trained a questioning eye today on President Johnson's antipov- erty program as it began an uncertain journey through the legislative mill.

Democratic reaction generally was favorable to the plan the President submitted Monday to pick up a number of previously considered proposals, add some new ones and wrap them up into a $962.5-million program aimed primarily at assistance to needy young Americans.

Republicans, wary of being tagged with opposition to any measures that would reduce pov- erty, nevertheless found little that was new in a program some of them regarded as aimed primarily at promoting Johnson's political chances in November.

Peace Corps chieftain Sargent

Shriver, designated by the Pres- ident as his personal chief of staff to direct "the war against poverty," was listed as the first witness as the House Labor Committee moved to considera- tion of the over-all presidential proposals.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, the assistant Senate Democratic leader, predicted that members will cooperate with Johnson to end the "con- gressional delinquency" he said it had displayed in the past in attacking the problem of youths the President said now are "condemned to a life of poverty which they, in turn, will pass on to their children."

Democratic leader Carl Al- bert of Oklahoma urged the House to pass the President's bill and not let down the poor. He said it was an "intolerable situation" that fully one-fifth of the population is not enjoying the country's prosperity.

Nobody argued against that position. But there was so much evident dissent to the methods Johnson proposed using that it might take the full weight of presidential pressure to push through even a portion of the program this year.

Senate Republicans already are on a record against two of the major proposals in the catch-all program—a youth conservation corps, renamed by Johnson as a Jobs Corps, and a national service corps patterned on the Peace Corps. Both of these measures have encountered stiff opposition in the House, where a Republican - conservative Democrat coalition often calls the turn on legisla- tion of this type.

1st Action Set On Easement For St. Clair

Solicitor Schedules Lisbon Court Case On Kinsey's Land

The first civil action will be filed within a week in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon to ap- propriate an easement across private property and clear the way for an $846,000 rebuilding of outer St. Clair Ave., Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper said after Council approved new enabling legislation Monday night.

Council gave approval to the second of two ordinances re- quired for Cooper to take court action for appropriation of an easement on the property of Dr. and Mrs. R. Jay Kinsey of St. Clair Ave. near Hill Blvd.

At the same time, first legis- lation was enacted to help clear the way for similar ac- tion on the properties of Carl Gamble of Azalea Ave. and Martin Sheerer of St. Clair Ave. near Highland Colony.

First legislation for the ac- tion against the Kinsey prop- erty was approved at the meet- ing March 2. Meanwhile, the dentist and his wife were served with formal notice of the city's intent to seek court action on an easement.

That cleared the way for the ordinance approved last night. (Turn to ST. CLAIR, Page 7)

Snow Flurries, Cold? That's Like Blarney

Patrick Weatherman O'Hio is- sued this odd forecast today, de- claring it wasn't blarney:

Strong northwest winds and much colder tonight; Wednes- day, scattered flurries and cold.

And begorah, that's dropping a cold wave shillelagh on the Tri-State District, which over the weekend enjoyed spring-like weather with a high tempera- ture about 60 Monday afternoon. The downtown had a reading of 34 at 6 a. m. and it dropped to the freezing mark of 32 an hour later. Tonight's low will be far colder, with 14 to 18 expected. Northern Ohio will get still cold- er with 10 forecast, along with snow squalls.

But even if winter returns it will be only briefly as spring is due officially at 9:10 a. m. Friday.

Council Asks New Study On Curb Meters

Council asked its planning committee Monday night to make another investigation of the need for purchase of new parking meters.

The subject arose when Coun- cilman William Davis, who heads the planning committee, reported he had been ap- proached by the Rockwell Man- ufacturing Co. of Pittsburgh, which distributes one brand of the curb meters.

"I feel we should get togeth- er and decide what can be done about our meters," Davis told Council.

"I certainly agree," Council- man Robert W. Sample Jr. re- marked.

Then Councilman Norman Bucher made a motion asking an investigation by Davis' com- mittee. The other members are Hancock and Sample.

Replacement of the 1947 mod- el meters has been discussed repeatedly by Council in the last three or four years, but it never has moved to the point where a purchase was author- ized.

Late last December, the 1962-63 Council was scheduled to con- sider an ordinance authorizing (Turn to METERS, Page 2)

City Schools Fund Need Set At $2,216,014

Total Decrease Of $17,915 Reflected In Board's Figures

Appropriations totaling $2,216,014, including $1,912,923 for the general operating costs, were approved Monday night by the Board of Education.

The appropriations showed a total decline of $17,915 with $13,761 being pared from the general fund. Appropriations in 1963 totaled $2,233,929 with the general fund accounting for $1,926,694.

As usual, the general fund does not present a true picture since $207,376 will be deducted from state foundation funds and county taxes before any pay- ments are received, Miss Kath- ryn C. Liebschner, clerk-treas- urer, told the board. Last year the board "lost" $180,669 before payments were made.

Miss Liebschner said the to- tal appropriated for the gener- al fund is the entire amount listed by the County Budget Commission in its "estimate of resources" indicating what mo- (Turn to SCHOOLS, Page 5)

Election's Unanimous

Richard Smith Appointed In School Board Vacancy

Richard Smith, 1112 St. George St., who finished fourth in a seven - man contest for the Board of Education last fall, was elected unanimously to the board Monday night to succeed William C. Heasley, who re- signed Feb. 17 after a 45-day term.

Smith was elected after be- ing nominated by John R. Woormer with the second being made by Mrs. Nessie R. Dun- lop. There was no comment.

The board's action came one day ahead of a 30-day deadline imposed by state law after which the appointment could have been made by Probate Court.

A steam fitter, Smith will serve the remainder of the un- expired term which ends in 1967. Ironically, Herman L. (Bud) (Turn to SMITH, Page 2) purchase of approximately 400 new meters. But the biennium ran out before the legislation was presented.

Last year's action also followed an investigation by the planning committee, which was headed at that time by Councilman Floyd Murray.

The planning committee is expected to obtain data from most major meter manufacturers and distributors in preparing its report for Council.

The city's original meters were installed 16 years ago by the Dual Parking Meter Co. Over the years, about 200 more have been installed as off-street lots were established and new downtown areas were metered.

General Fund Gets $25,000

Council gave approval Monday night to an ordinance shifting $25,000 from income tax revenue to the city general fund, the third such transfer in a month.

Each of the transfers, now totaling $90,000, has been required because of delay in receipt of the first installment of real estate taxes from county officials at Lisbon.

Councilman Robert W. Sample Jr., finance committee chairman, reiterated the explanation after legislation was enacted last night. He said the funds are required principally to help meet payrolls.

Council appropriated $30,000 on Feb. 18 and $25,000 on March 2, also from income tax revenues.

The action in each instance amounts to borrowing out of current revenue, as the shifted funds are scheduled to be replaced when the first tax settlements of 1964 arrive. Councilmen pointed out that the transfers save the city the interest charges that would be levied if the required funds were borrowed from financial institutions, a common practice in the past.

The fiscal legislation contains an emergency clause, providing it will go into effect as soon as it is signed by Mayor Merrill D. Hall. The ordinance says the emergency "lies in the fact that it is necessary" to meet "wages and expenses of the various departments."

In other fiscal legislation, Council enacted a resolution authorizing payment of $60 to Mrs. Anna C. Martin of 11th St., Midland, whose auto was struck Jan. 20 by a city highlight which was removing snow on Pennsylvania Ave.

Flood Cleanup Continuing As River Recedes

By The Associated Press
The job of cleaning up the multi-million dollar mess caused by the Ohio River flood continued today as the river kept on receding.

The Weather Bureau forecast partly cloudy skies but said no rain was in sight — welcome news for residents of the Ohio valley who had just gone through the fourth worst flood in recent history.

Forecasters said the Ohio would sink to 60.7 feet at Cincinnati today—5.5 feet below last week's crest—and people whose riverside businesses had been flooded out put clean-up crews to work.

Some hoped to reopen before the end of the week.

The Red Cross relief headquarters said its latest figures showed the floodwater drove out more than 110,000 people and destroyed or damaged 26,249 homes in a five-state area.

More than a dozen deaths have been blamed on the flood. The latest occurred Monday when a motorboat capsized off Ludlow, Ky., and Homer Bidwell of Covington, Ky., was swept away as he tried to swim to shore. A companion clung to the overturned boat and was rescued.

Man To Face Grand Jury In Slaying Case

OXFORD, Ohio (AP)—Walter Martin, 46, has been bound over to the Butler County grand jury on a reduced charge of second-degree murder in the slaying of a neighbor with whom he had been quarreling.

Martin was arrested March 5 and charged with first-degree murder after Charles Broadus, 63, was shot to death. Martin, who says Broadus fired first, pleaded innocent Monday in County Court.

Gunman Robs Ohio Auto License Office

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—A gunman held up the state license plate bureau office here Monday night and obtained $5,700-$6,400 in cash, police said. The exact amount of loot will not be known until an audit is taken. Police said the robbers ignored checks and 1964 tags.

How Firm A Foundation

There is no tidy solution to Ohio's battle over public school financing. The problem needs closer and cooler scrutiny than the state and the schools have given it.

This negative tug-of-war between fiscal austerity and increased spending for education is benefitting no one. It may even be taking some of the gloss off the image Ohio Gov. Rhodes is flashing around the country to lure industry and jobs.

It isn't easy to quarrel with the basic position of the two sides in this controversy, but we're weary of charges which don't seem to have basis in fact.

The State Controlling Board has, in effect, told the schools Ohio is still broke and won't bail them out if they spend their legislative allowance before the end of the biennium.

What's wrong with that? Aren't Ohioans interested in seeing the state pull itself out of debt?

WHAT'S WRONG is that it's "austerity," And "austerity" mixed with education is explosive.

Ohioans want quality education schools have come to expect a deficiency appropriation near the end of the two-year bookkeeping period. Two-year budgeting is tough enough for anyone. But schools find it particularly tough because of variables such as enrollment, property valuation, teacher salary adjustments and other fluctuating factors in the school foundation law.

So the Controlling Board is charged with overstepping its authority by putting schools on notice that Ohio can't afford to come up with $8.5 million or more before the end of the biennium.

BUT HAS THE Controlling Board assumed improper authority?

This board, a creature of the General Assembly, has no power to cut or add to appropriations. It has only the power to say yes or no to spending requests that exceed 25 per cent of a year's appropriation in any one quarter.

Traditionally, it has said yes to such requests for schools. It said no this time because computers started flashing a warning that a deficit would occur before the end of fiscal 1965.

But the schools have the Foundation Act on their side. They claim this law gives them legal right to state aid, regardless of the condition of the state treasury. And that is the way it has been interpreted in the past.

THIS COMPLEX LAW seems to be the place to start working on the school money problem, unless Ohioans are willing to tax themselves further to support their schools.

The Foundation Act certainly has contributed to the problem of accurate budgeting because of its incredibly complicated formula.

By providing unlimited rewards for extended school services, additional programs and supervision, and by basing state aid on such highly variable factors, the law has turned the deficiency appropriation into a fiscal habit.

If Ohio wants to break the habit, it had better look at the law.

The Little Salesmen

That little giant of the advertizing world — the want ad — has just been feted with a national week.

And rightly so, for the classified ad is one of the most effective methods of selling yet devised. Across the nation, almost 90 per cent of all homes are sold or advertised in the classified section of newspapers and the same per centage applies for automobiles.

Throughout the Tri-State District, pets, farm supplies, household goods, musical instruments, boats, cars, bicycles — just about anything you can name — are bought and sold through the Review's classified pages.

Last year, over 148,000 of the ads were placed in The Review, a testimony to the popularity and success of the hard-working little salesmen.

It Wasn't In The Book

Jack Ruby has been sentenced to the electric chair for the murder of Lee Henry Oswald, accused murderer of President Kennedy.

All and any psychiatrists to the contrary notwithstanding, Ruby was guilty of premeditated murder.

For the first time in the muddled affairs of man, a murder was committed in the sight of millions of his peers. The entire episode was pictured on film.

Ruby placed himself at the scene of the crime he intended to commit with sure-footed determination. He stood quietly until his intended victim was within easy distance, then leaped at him, taking deliberate aim. Never was a capital crime performed with more poise and perfection.

THE TRIAL of Ruby was an anti-climax. The efforts of his lawyer to make a jury believe his client was in the throes of a mental blackout were absurd. Jack Ruby knew what he was doing and did it very well. He was aware of every circumstance, except one.

The Hardest Decision

Remembering the bitter years when France was bleeding to death in Indochina, President Johnson must shape the hardest decision of his life.

Should the United States step up its military effort in South Viet Nam, even to the point of going to war with the Chinese People's Republic and forcing Peking and Moscow to unite against the West?

Defense Secretary McNamara is home from his latest inspection of the Vietnamese dilemma. It is being reported that he will advise President Johnson to beef up the military effort in South Viet Nam.

But thanks to better communications than the people of France ever had with their southeastern Asia outpost, the people of the United States know that the military effort in South Viet Nam can be no better than the people making it.

The shortcoming has not been in U.S.

material but in the morale of the South Vietnamese fighting men and the population of the country. They do not bristle with anger against the Viet Cong. North Viet Nam and the Chinese People's Republic do not represent any ultimate menace to them.

They know little and care less about the international struggle between the United States and the forces of communism. What little they know about communism is matched by their even more meager knowledge of capitalism.

When they are told they must be saved, they wonder from what. When they are told they must fight harder to stave off Vietnamese who are their neighbors, they wonder why.

France was extricated from its dilemma in Indochina by a crushing defeat at Dienbienphu after 10 years of frustration. Will the United States have its own Dienbienphu?

Government By Folly

By Truman Twill

Filibusters in the U.S. Senate used to annoy me.

Now they amuse me for the same reason they formerly annoyed me.

A filibuster is the height of folly.

It means everything else has failed and legislative government has sunk to such a low level all it can do is flap its gums. Granted.

It is only when the alternative is taken into consideration that a filibuster doesn't look so bad.

The alternative is government by edict. Government by folly is better than government by edict.

The filibuster is an affront to dignity and sense, but it is less harmful than an edict would be.

COME TO THINK of it, what effect would an edict on civil rights have in states like Alabama and Mississippi?

Ten years have drifted by since the U.S. Supreme Court handed down its ruling on educational integration and states like these still have paid no attention.

Someday then intransigence will turn into a scandal. When certain states refuse to recognize the authority of the federal government, that's rebellion all over again.

If their people are willing to pay the price of ostracism, they can do as they please. Their unwilling victims will leave them.

Educators will shun teaching jobs.

Americans who take a long view will steer clear of the problems building up in Southern society.

Their religionists will wither in the knowledge they have scorned precepts they preach.

BUT BY GOLLY, suh, they will still be talkin' about their rights.

If that isn't amusing as a long-term prospect, there's nothing funny about diehards who periodically prove they have unlimited capacity for windjamming by running a filibuster on the Senate floor.

This one, it's being surmised, might go on until next summer.

That would be pretty bad.

So what else is new?

Shucks, Fellas!

Hoffa Aide Linked To Castro

By Victor Riesel

Only a few observers and those who have carefully gone over the court transcripts of the James Hoffa trial are aware that defense counsel attempted to discredit the government's chief witness, Edward G. Martin, by accusing him of making a "dirty, vicious deal" with Cuban "dictator Castro."

Such words as "treason" and "traitor" were directed at the witness by this attorney. After the trial, this outburst led to a probing of federal files. I don't know what turned up on Martin, but I do know that government records reveal that in 1959 a close friend and lieutenant of Jim Hoffa and others who have been close to the convicted Teamsters' chief were deeply involved in attempts to sell surplus C-74 Globemasters to this same "dictator Castro."

The Hoffa aide is Nunzio Louie ("Babe") Triscaro, vice president of the Ohio Conference of Teamsters and president of Local 436, Excavating, Building Material, Construction Drivers and Race Track Employees. TRISCARO, one of Hoffa's most trusted companions in the Teamster hierarchy, was part of a combine of men whose contact with the Cuban government in the airplane deal was William Morgan, thrice convicted thief and Castro's personal gunman.

During the spring of '59 Triscaro shuttled back and forth between his home city of Cleveland, Hoffa's hotel and official headquarters in Washington, Miami hotels and Havana itself. At one time "Babe" and several others actually flew a C-74 into Havana's military airfield. They were greeted by a large crowd of officials who gave them a hearty welcome.

Another of this group who sought to make big money fast by selling to Castro was Ben Dranow, long a bird dog for those seeking loans from the Teamsters Central States Pension Fund. Dranow is presently serving a long prison term.

He and others in the "airplane" group are now under indictment, along with Hoffa, on charges of fraudulently pushing loans of $20 million from the Central States Fund. They face trial next month in Chicago.

Minimum Wage Pitfall

By David Lawrence

Inflationary Trend Seen In Proposal

The maneuvers in Congress which could bring on a severe inflation and break down the national economy are sometimes hidden away in proposed legislation that outwardly appears to be designed to serve a beneficial purpose.

Do many people realize, for instance, David Lawrence that the unions are asking for the passage by Congress of a bill which, if enacted, could conceivably add at least $8 billion a year — and possible several billions more — to the current expenses of American business and inevitably force prices upward to absorb such costs?

Although in a free-enterprise system the government, except in wartime, isn't supposed to fix wages or prices, Congress is being urged to raise the minimum wage throughout the country from the rate of $1.25 an hour to $2.

On the surface this looks like an inconsequential item. Also, who doesn't sympathize with the objective, which is to help in the "war on poverty" and give a better wage to many of the unskilled workers who are in the lower grades of employment?

But to move a person working a 40-hour week from a rate of $1.25 an hour, or $50 a week, to $2 an hour, or $80 a week, doesn't affect just those particular individuals. It means an overhauling of virtually the entire wage structure and a raising of wage rates all along the line.

THIS IS WHY the AFL-CIO unions — who really don't have many members in the lower grades of employment — are pushing hard for such a bill. The truth is that, if a worker who now gets $1.25 an hour is paid a rate of $2 an hour, the wage-earner who already has been receiving $2 an hour — because he or she is supposed to be of higher grade than the minimum-wage employee — will feel there should be a corresponding advance in pay.

This applies all along the line and creates a demand for more wages among those who contend their skills are worth a higher rate of pay than that given to those in the next lower category.

It's not likely that a skilled worker getting $2 an hour will be satisfied with that wage if, for example, the man who sweeps the floor is to be paid $2 an hour, too. Would those stenographers who now receive $30 a week be content to get the same pay as office boys?

But what are the general effects? The AFL-CIO says all this would increase purchasing power. Unfortunately, however, many employers will find themselves unable to afford the higher wage costs. Prices would have to go up. This could mean less business and hence fewer jobs in the end.

Then Fog Sets In

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON Every year, starting in January, the air clears in Washington. This lasts a few weeks. Then the fog sets in.

When Congress meets in January, the President sends up the usual yearly messages and perhaps a few programs. It still looks like a nice year.

Although members of Congress comment on the messages and programs, what they have to say is predictable. It depends on which side they're on.

This is when the fog begins and slowly spreads as Congress settles down to work. Somehow everything gets complicated and bogged down.

This is one of those times. Southern Democrats in the Senate have begun a civil rights filibuster which may stall all other action for months.

Presidential programs which have to wait till it's over may die from waiting, particularly in a hurry-home election year like this.

This doesn't mean the President has time to coast. While Congress dawdles, he's up to something else. There's enough to keep him busy.

President Johnson, who only two nights ago explained in an interview how hard he works, has seldom being busier than these past two days.

But things can get mixed up at his end of Washington, too. Monday, after his hour-long interview Sunday night, he sent his antipoverty program to Congress and addressed the Organization of American States.

The poverty program, with a $62.5-million price tag, covers a lot of ground and Congress may be too bogged-down to do anything about it.

Employers, moreover, say they would be compelled to introduce more and more machinery to take the place of employees, and this, too, would cut down the number of available jobs and add to unemployment.

THE UNIONS often are confronted with the argument by management that, because the non-union plants maintain lower wage costs and lower prices, union negotiators should not force the scales upward and make them too far out of line. When the federal government steps in and establishes a higher minimum scale, this assists the unions in forcing a revision of existing wage scales.

Whenever, of course, a single organized group or the government begins to set wage rates, there is a corresponding impact on the making of prices to cover such added costs.

If the federal minimum-wage law affected only the workers in the minimum-wage class, the cost of raising these workers alone to $2 an hour would mean an extra cost of around $8 billion a year to business.

But when the wages of the higher-paid groups also are to be boosted, the new expense total confronting management would be increased by billions of dollars more.

Plainly minimum wages should in many cases be higher from the standpoint of humanitarianism. But there is a right way and a wrong way to go about it. The moment the federal government, by act of Congress, fixes the minimum wage, it engages, in effect, in wage control for all categories, and this, in turn, means price rises.

CONGRESS, however, for political reasons, doesn't want to set up an over-all system of wage control, as this would be opposed by the trade unions with big voting strength in the electorate.

Business managements are against price control because they believe the laws of supply and demand in a free-enterprise system are effective only when not interfered with by government action.

Many protests, therefore, have been filed with members of Congress against the proposed raise from $1.25 to $2 an hour for minimum wages.

But, it will be asked, what of the low-wage earners? Should they be deprived of their increase? The answer is that, if Congress will undertake wage control and forbid any further increases in wages in other grades of employment, the minimum wage could readily be raised gradually and benefits given to the deserving workers. But since Congress will not tackle the wage- and price-control issue across the board, there is only economic trouble ahead for the nation.

A dangerous inflationary trend can be anticipated if the innocent-looking increase in minimum wages from $50 to $80 a week for unskilled workers is adopted.

It's complicated and the civil rights fight stands in the way.

Even House Speaker John W. McCormack made no prediction on its chances this year. One Senate Republican leader got very critical.

Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper of Iowa, chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, said the program looks like a "political maneuver."

Certainly it was not poor politics on Johnson's part to offer it in this election year when there are millions of poverty-stricken people.

But because there are, the Republicans will have to think twice before they fight it or knock it, if they have such a thing in mind.

Politically — if the program gets shoved aside on the excuse there is too much else to do — nobody loses anything but poor people.

The only father and son combination to both become President of the U. S. was John Adams, the second, and his oldest son, John Quincy Adams, sixth.

Hancock Sets Half-Million Loss In Flood

A citizens' committee estimated today last week's flood caused damage in Hancock County in excess of $500,000, most of it in New Cumberland.

Headed by Norman D. Ferrari of Weirton, the committee met this morning in the Court-house to complete final reports on a weekend survey of communities along the Ohio River that were inundated by the high water.

Ferrari and New Cumberland Mayor Welly M. Vulgamore Jr. left immediately after the meeting to turn over the damage report to state and federal authorities in Wheeling.

State and federal agencies are expected to consider the county officially as a "disaster area," making it eligible for financial assistance, the committee said.

Squire John D. Herron, a member of the committee, said New Cumberland was the hardest hit of any community in Hancock.

There was damage, Herron said, to 160 homes, nine apartments, three churches, 27 business establishments, three industrial plants, the city sewage disposal plant and public utilities.

Herron also pointed out the report listed damage from the flood in Congo and Chester.

In addition to Herron, Ferrari and Mayor Vulgamore, others at the meeting this morning were Mayor Harry Abrams of Chester, Julian C. Wilson, supervisor of the Pughtown Garage of the State Road Commission, the Rev. Grant Lowe and the Rev. Allen S. Fields.

2 Motorists Injured In Crash On Route 68

An East Liverpool man and a Jefferson County driver were injured in a two-car crash Monday about 3:30 p. m. on Route 68 just east of the Smiths Ferry Bridge.

Jerry Woods, 20, of Mt. Pleasant was in "fairly good" condition today at City Hospital with a possible neck injury. Jack Laughlin, 2225 Michigan Ave., suffered a bruised knee.

Ohioville Police Chief Bernard Zlatovich, who investigated, said Woods' car was stopped in a line of traffic when it was hit from the rear by Laughlin's. Laughlin's 1951 sedan was termed a total loss. There was $400 damage to Woods' 1956 model.

Schools

nies the board will receive this year.

One of the chief reasons for the lower figure is the loss of state foundation funds since the 12½-mill charge-off is based on the new valuation of approximately $52 million against the old valuation of roughly $47 million.

The deductions to be made this year before payments are made with the 1963 deductions in parentheses are:

Teachers' retirement, $147,198 ($132,009); employees' retirement, $27,740 ($18,440); auditor's and treasurer's fees, $25,154 ($21,500); workmen's compensation, $3,265 ($3,800); election expenses, $3,415 ($3,400); disabled workmen's relief, $437 ($420); advertising delinquent lands, $167 ($200). In 1963, there also was a $900 deduction for the state examiner.

A breakdown of the general fund with the 1963 appropriations in parentheses shows:

Salaries, $1,494,034 ($1,507,786); supplies, $80,900 ($91,750); maintenance materials, $2,925 ($8,375); equipment replacements, $7,425 ($9,900); contract and open order service, $108,162 ($104,174); fixed charges, $8,500 ($6,552); capital outlay, $3,200 ($16,879); and debt service, $500 ($600).

Besides the general fund, appropriations for other accounts with last year's figures in parentheses are:

Bonds maturing $120,000 (same); interest on bonds, $41,250 ($44,850); lunchroom, $72,762 ($79,857); permanent improvement, $2,212 (same); night schools, $517 ($780); Title III federal funds, $10,000 ($5,000); workbooks, $10,600 ($8,151); and repair and maintenance, $45,748 ($46,392).

Miss Liebschner reported a balance in all school funds as of yesterday at $121,241. It includes $95,207 in the general fund, $16,030, bond retirement; $7,337, lunch room; $2,212, improvement; $397, night schools, and $376, repair and maintenance. There is a deficit of $319 in the workbook account.

No One Hurt In Crash

No one was reported injured in a collision of two vehicles on Route 39 about a mile and a half west of Wellsville this morning, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported. An officer was investigating late this morning.

County Orders Radio To Monitor Fire Calls

LISBON — County commissioners Monday ordered a radio transmitter and receiver that will be installed at the County Jail for use in monitoring the frequency used by fire departments throughout the county in order that assistance can be dispatched, if needed.

The radio gear was purchased from Motorola, Inc., of Fairlawn, N. J., on its lone bid of $1,416.

Commissioners approved a $300 slag grant to Madison Township and granted a travel allowance for Supt. Russell Phillips of the County Home to take a resident of the home to Cleveland next Monday. The board agreed to advertise for purchase of a Dodge truck for use at the county home. Bid forms can be obtained at the commissioners office.

Next meeting will be Thursday from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

WHY WASTE GASOLINE!

Sohio has found in test fleets that a dirty carburetor can waste as much as 1 gallon of gasoline in a tankful!

Sohio Science has added a special Carburetor Cleaner to Boron Gasoline that removes gasoline-wasting deposits!

If there's anything you want to avoid, it's wasting the gasoline you pay for. Yet this is exactly what can happen when you drive with a dirty carburetor. Actual measurements by Sohio in test fleets show that a dirty carburetor can waste as much as 1 gallon of gasoline in a tankful!

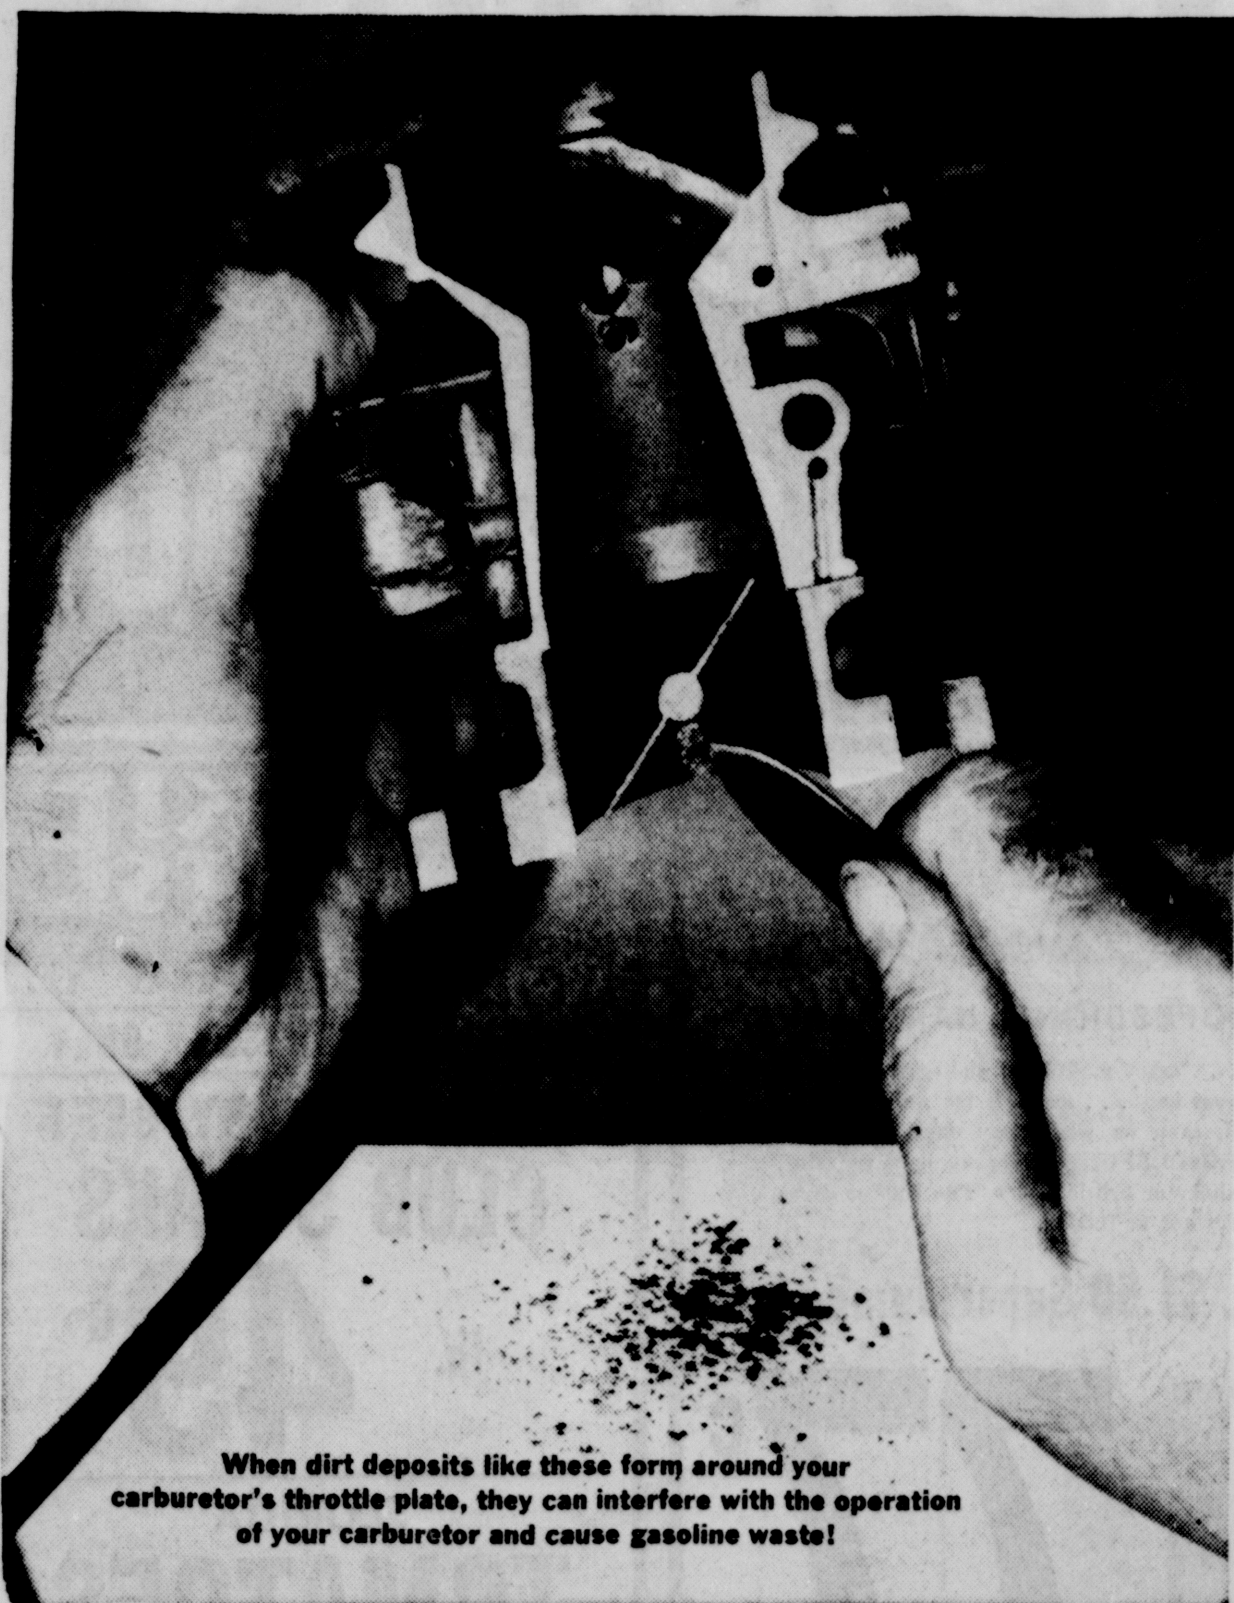

HOW DIRTY CARBURETORS CAUSE GASOLINE WASTE. Your carburetor is a complicated mechanism, carefully adjusted to admit just the right amounts of gasoline and air to your engine. Dirt deposits in the throat of the carburetor below the throttle plate can interfere with your carburetor's operation. They can restrict the flow of air around the throttle plate. This is particularly true when you are idling and your throttle plate is nearly closed. When this happens, your gasoline-and-air mixture can get too rich. Too little air, too much gasoline. Result: stalling, rough idling and gasoline waste! Just how much gasoline you can waste depends upon how dirty your carburetor is and upon how much city driving you do. This kind of driving means a lot of idling at stoplights and in traffic.

SOME DIRT GETS INTO EVERY CARBURETOR. Your car has an air cleaner to keep dirt from getting into your carburetor. It does a good job. However, there are dirt particles in the fumes from your own engine and in the exhaust of other cars that are too small to be trapped by your air cleaner. When these tiny dirt particles get into your carburetor, they can settle in the form of gummy deposits on the walls of your carburetor just below the throttle plate. Eventually, these gummy deposits can turn into a hard ledge of deposit. And the more this deposit builds up, the more gasoline you can waste.

CARBURETOR ADJUSTMENTS AND CLEANINGS. Drivers know how important their carburetors are to engine performance. They often have their carburetors adjusted for proper idling and maximum mileage. They usually do this when they have their engines "tuned up". But this operation is often only a temporary cure. The deposits can continue to form and you can still waste gasoline. In severe cases the carburetor will have to be taken apart and cleaned.

BORON WITH ITS SPECIAL CARBURETOR CLEANER is the easy way to prevent gasoline waste due to carburetor deposits! Sohio has added a special Carburetor Cleaner to Boron Gasoline that dissolves throttle plate deposits and washes them away. Because the deposits are hard, the process may take time, but the end result will be a clean carburetor. Once your carburetor is clean, regular use of Boron will keep it clean.

DON'T LET A DIRTY CARBURETOR WASTE YOUR GASOLINE. Don't let carburetor deposits cause your gasoline-and-air mixture to become "over-rich" and waste gasoline. It's a waste that can be as much as one gallon of gasoline in a tankful! Always use Boron with its special Carburetor Cleaner! Get Boron...at Sohio!

When dirt deposits like these form around your carburetor's throttle plate, they can interfere with the operation of your carburetor and cause gasoline waste!

Board Airs Complaint

Midland Ticket
Sales Assailed

Three members of the Midland Area Chamber of Commerce, with Paul McGeehan as spokesman, complained to the Midland Board of Education Monday night on the way tickets were handled for the WPIAL basketball tournament at Pittsburgh the weekend of March 7 in which the Midland High School team played.

They asserted that the handling of the sales was not "in the best interest of the public," in that those in charge allowed large groups of patrons stand in line when they realized that there were not enough reserved tickets for all those desiring them.

McGEEHAN said it was the opinion of the Chamber and many residents that those at the end of the line should have been informed that there were not enough tickets to go around.

Edward Cilli, president, admitted that perhaps the situation could have been handled better, but pointed out that all those desiring tickets, got tickets — even if not reserved tickets.

He said some of the confusion arose because the persons in charge were not experienced.

John Uccellini, chairman of the athletics committee, said it was their responsibility to see that "regular season ticket holders and the team's loyal following got their tickets first."

HE SAID the problem this year was "not lack of tickets but a lack of fans," pointing out that at the last home game, even though Midland had an undefeated team, the total reserved ticket sales to adults was 23.

At another game during the season, they sold 14 adult reserved seat tickets, and at another, 29.

He said, quoting figures prepared by the late Supt. Ralph Jewell that, even though undefeated, Midland had the lowest attendance in the last five years. He then asked, "where were the loyal fans during the season?"

In response to a rumor that Coach Hank Kuzma quit the job of handling ticket sales "under pressure" by the board and administration, he said that was not so, adding that Kuzma had dropped the extra duty because of the time required in preparing the team for the tournament.

He also reported that for the three tournament games at Pittsburgh, Midland grossed $8,500 for its share of the gate. The board accepted the resignation of Paul Kepple, a chemistry and physics instructor at the high school, effective at the end of the school year. He is going to do further study during the 1964-65 term at the University of Pennsylvania.

Leslie Roach, personnel chairman, said that Miss Agnes Lauth, hired by the board at their February meeting as a kindergarten teacher, had not accepted the position, and that a substitute teacher will serve.

Roach also announced that the board had received a draft deferment for Thadeus Wauro to complete the term as instrumental music instructor. He also was hired at the February meeting. He was to have been inducted today.

GERALD LAVALLE, drivers training instructor, was granted permission to attend a safety conference at Gettysburg April 24-25, and John Wilson, elementary supervisor, to attend an elementary seminar and curriculum convention April 4-9, at Miami, with an added $50 expenditures.

The board granted permission to the Catholic Daughters of America to use the high school auditorium May 1-2 for a dance revue, and to the St. George Junior Tamburitans to use the auditorium May 17 for a concert. Both were approved on condition the dates do not conflict with a regular school function.

A school calendar for 1965-66, showing 182 school days, was adopted.

Uccellini reported that the field of 55 applicants for the position of football coach had been narrowed to three men, and that an announcement should be forthcoming soon.

IN OTHER action, the board voted to purchase a memorial plaque for the lobby of the administrative building in memory of Dr. Jewell, who died suddenly last week.

Interim orders placed by Dr. Jewell during February, in the amount of $638.57, were ordered paid. The report of Mrs. Eldamae Castelli, treasurer, was ordered filed, as was Tax Collector Rudolph Presutti's report for February.

The Library Board was authorized to purchase books worth $356.05. General bills in the amount of $17,158.26 were ordered paid and cash receipts amounting to $554.74 were received and placed in proper accounts. A special bill in the amount of $2,140.74 was paid to the Joseph Bontempo Association, consulting engineers, as partial payment for preparation of special plans for the new high school science department.

Cilli, presided. Next meeting will be April 13.

Salineville Area Fire
Burns Over 10 Acres

SALINEVILLE—About 10 acre of brushland burned in a blaze on property of Leo Maple of Irondale Rd., six miles south of here, late Monday afternoon.

Six Salineville firemen along with the state fire fighter battled the flames for about two hours. The fire spread out of control as brush was being burned off.

directing the solicitor to proceed with the court action.

The second ordinance declares the city's intent to take action in the case of the Sheerer and Gamble properties. After the property-owners have been served with formal notices, the way will be clear for enactment of the next legislation.

In the Gamble property, the city seeks an easement and right-of-way "for construction, operation, maintenance and replacement of a storm sewer for the drainage of part of St. Clair Ave., together with the natural watercourse drainage now flowing under the land."

In the Sheerer property, the city will seek a so-called slope easement, plus an easement "for construction of steps from the bottom to the top of said slope."

In each instance, the city will ask the court to empanel a jury to hear arguments from both sides, examine the property and then fix the price which the municipality must pay for the easements. The court actions were undertaken after the city and the property-owners were unable to agree on prices.

Thirty-eight work agreements and easements will be required in all for the St. Clair project. When all have been obtained, the way will be clear for the State Highway Department to call for contractors' bids on the job.

After enactment of the legislation last night, President George E. Willshaw said he had talked with an attorney representing the Kinseys. The lawyer said he and the Kinseys will have a conference with the solicitor, then seek a caucus with Council to discuss the question further, Willshaw said.

Fight To Label Cigarettes
As Health Peril Resumes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The battle over plans to label cigarettes with health hazard warnings resumes today.

Among the parade of witnesses at the opening session of the Federal Trade Commission's scheduled three-day hearings Monday were:

Dr. Eva Salber of Harvard University—She said television advertising has a strong impact on youngsters who ought to be warned that smoking may seem an adventure but soon becomes a dangerous habit.

Dr. Michael Shimkin, longtime foe of smoking—"At least for the past 40 years, the tobacco industry has shown the morals of a barracuda," he told the commission.

H. Thomas Austern, legal representative of the Tobacco Institute — The FTC does not have the authority to make binding rules that would force the cautionary labeling of cigarette packages or advertisements, he declared.

FTC Chairman Paul Rand Dixon said the commission would not have made the proposals unless it believed that it had the authority to do so.

Outside the hearing room in which smoking was banned, Dixon told newsmen that no matter what the FTC did, it realized that its actions would

How to get a bigger allowance when you
trade your car

When they tell you it's not the first cost that counts, but the upkeep too — that's not the whole story either. Read on...

When you visit our showroom and chat with one of our salesmen you're really just talking with another car owner. There's not a man on our staff who isn't a car buyer himself, with the same interest in getting the most for his money as you. He knows your side of the story! And here it is...

First you want the best deal you can get when you buy.

He'll explain to you our Spring sale of '64 Comets and how it can save you lots of money right off the bat. It's merely a matter of sales volume. Comet sales are up—94% over a year ago,* and still climbing. So we're keeping prices down at rock-bottom to keep our sales sky-high.

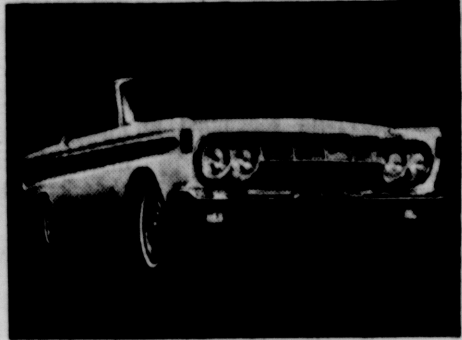

Next you want economy every mile you drive.

And don't think because a car saves you money by the mile that it's a "dog." Matter of fact, the '64 Comet is the World's 100,000-Mile Durability Champion (each member of a team went that distance recently at Daytona, averaging over 105 mph for the course!). The point is Comets have a host of built-in service-saving features to give economy new meaning!

And finally — you want the most in trade when the time comes.

Well—now we come to the happy ending of our story. For high resale is Comet's language! This one has the tradition of record high resale—one of the hottest items in demand on anybody's used car lot. Yes, if you want to know how to get more in trade—start with a Comet in the first place! And the first place to come for that is here!

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm shaken and I need your counsel.

Can you conceive any circumstances under which it would be proper for a casual friend to telephone and say, "I understand you are having a party. I'm sure my husband and I were sent an invitation but it went astray in the mail. Of course we'd love to come."

We had not invited this couple to the party, but when she put me on the spot in this ruthless manner I was so taken aback I didn't know what to say. So I lied politely and replied, "Yes, we did want you but apparently there was a slip-up somewhere."

We have been entertained by this couple and have had them at our home. But they are not close friends and I'm shocked by her behavior. Furthermore, I'm annoyed with myself for knuckling under. Perhaps she thinks more warmly of me than I think of her and I'm too critical? Please set me straight. —N.D.

Dear N.S.: Warmly, my eye. The colossal guts of this woman threw you off balance. Too bad you were unable to meet the challenge with matching nerve. Sample reply: "No, you were not on the list this time but we do hope to have you to another party."

Short On Gray Matter

Dear Ann: My husband and I have been happily married for almost 15 years. We are both in our middle 30s.

Harvey had a few gray hairs when we were married. Today his hair is completely gray and I like it very much. It has never bothered me. Fact is, I think it makes him look distinguished.

Every time his mother comes to visit us she makes some cutting remark about how gray Harvey is getting. This fries me because she puts it like this: "You must be worrying him to death, dear."

Incidentally, his mother's hair is snow white and she is in her middle 50s. She was totally gray when I first met her 18 years ago.

Please print my letter and your reply and explain if gray.

Council Meeting Set

SUMMITVILLE — Council will meet Thursday night at 8 at the Township Hall, Mayor Ernest Phillips said. A proposed street light contract is to be prepared.

hair has anything to do with worry. Thank you.—NO SHREW.

Dear No: Gray hair is the result of glandular secretions which affects the color-producing properties of the hair follicle. It has nothing to do with worry and often runs in families. So you can tell Harvey's mother that he probably got his gray hair from her.

Memphis Mothers

Dear Ann: We are a group of Memphis mothers who meet at informal gatherings. We feel it is essential for mothers to know the standards of other parents so that we may set up reasonable guidelines for our own children. Out of our discussions came a little handbook entitled, "Let's Talk It Over."

If it is not against your policy, we would appreciate a statement which would endorse our efforts.—PARENTS LEAGUE OF MEMPHIS.

Dear Memphis: Your booklet has a great deal of merit. I particularly liked your paragraph discussing happiness. I quote from it:

"We must help our children learn that happiness is a by-product of other factors: (1) self-respect; (2) service to others; (3) work well done; (4) accumulated skills."

Happiness is a state of heart. It is intangible. No amount of money or material possessions can assure us of it. It is right for us to want our children to be happy, but we cannot give happiness to them. They must earn it."

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Ex-Smokers Should Set A Goal

Mark Twain's famous quip "It's easy to stop smoking — I've done it hundreds of times," describes our present predicament. As this delightful humorist pointed out, "Habit is habit and not to be flung out the window but coaxed down the stairs a step at a time."

So what is a Ida Jean Kain reasonable approach? First decide whether you want to stop or not. No one else can do this for you. You have to have your own reasons for stopping, reasons that are important to you.

CHOOSE A DATE for the event. You will need a little time to get used to the idea. But decide on a specified time in which you will start your crusade and set your goal. It will help to make a pact with a partner.

Your first cigarette of the day sets your smoking pattern for the day. It is easier to postpone having that initial cigarette than it is to forego succeeding cigarettes. So your objective is to postpone smoking the first cigarette of the day by an increasing number of hours each succeeding day.

Be alert to this fact: As soon as you have smoked your first cigarette you are back in the groove-in habit pattern. Suppose you succeed for 2 hours, 4 hours, or six hours. Good! Count this as progress. The next day push your goal a little further. Go all the way if you can.

In case you break down, don't feel defeated. You've made progress, so take your net gain. From that hour of the day on don't go beyond your usual pace. The next day you can go further. This is a gradual breaking away, but a way that is psychologically workable. You are advancing toward a definite goal. Within three days you can probably go all the way.

NOW, TO STAY slim or slim down: By not smoking early in the day you will enjoy breakfast. Excellent. This in turn helps you to set a slimming food pattern for the day.

The newest scientific plan is to eat less at a time, but to eat more often. The daily menus are planned to sustain energy and control hunger. You can dismiss the fear of creeping poundage from your mind. The menus, plus the purposeful pickups are within your lowered calorie quota. Also, having the meals planned gives you something concrete to work with. On the reducing score: Follow the menu pattern and you will lose 1 to 2 pounds a week.

Oak Glen, Weirton Bands
Will Visit World's Fair

Visits to the New York World's Fair by the Oak Glen and Weir High School varsity bands were approved — with reservations — by the Hancock County Board of Education Monday night.

Weir is one of four bands in the country invited to take part in a special opening ceremony April 1-2, with the entire program to be filmed on video tape by the National Broadcasting Co., and beamed to Europe via the Telstar satellite when the huge fair opens April 22 at Flushing Meadows, N. Y.

NBC has agreed to foot $2,700 of the expense involved, Supt. Robert H. Hall disclosed today.

But final approval for the trip rests with the Activities Commission of the West Virginia Board of Education, which normally frowns on such visits by musicians while school is in session.

Should the commission approve, Weir High's varsity band would join two bands from New England and one other group in the opening ceremonies April 1-2.

NBC plans to film the bands in the vicinity of each of the large exhibits and broadcast the program nationally and in Europe when the fair opens for a two-year period April 22.

WEIRTON'S band performed abroad last year in Holland at a world music festival, and the year before took part in the Rose Bowl parade in Pasadena, Calif.

E. L. Montgomery, director of the West Virginia Pavilion at the fair, has invited the Oak Glen Band to perform Aug. 22-23. Approval of the state commission for the Oak Glen visit is not needed as school will not be in session when the band would make the trip.

The board gave its approval with reservations, declining to allow the Oak Glen musicians to solicit funds door-to-door. However, the board said the musicians may conduct a "bucket parade" for funds if they desire. Supt. Hall explained the board is opposed to the musicians selling candy or magazines door-to-door, and realizing only a small share of the profit.

In other business, the board tabulated the ballots from last Tuesday's special election in which a levy renewal was approved by a wide margin. There was no significant change.

The official count showed 3,468 voted for the levy renewal, with 1,376 against. The early count gave the levy 3,471-1,381. The eight-vote change means a total of 4,844 cast ballots, rather than 4,852.

George Soisson was hired as a mechanic at the bus garage at $400 monthly, and S. G. Mayles as custodian of the Oak Glen gymnasium. Ruth Ann Wise of New Cumberland was hired as an elementary instructor, and Raymond A. DeFede submitted his resignation.

The board approved commencement dates of June 11 for Weir High School, and June 12 for Oak Glen. The annual school picnic was set June 13 at Rock Springs Park in Chester, the day following the end of the school term.

Given approval to attend the regional library meeting at West Liberty on Wednesday are Mrs. Florence Litman, Mrs. Carolyn Mountford, Mrs. Mary Lou May, Frank Endry, Mrs. Sue McClung, Mrs. Hattie Lewis and Mrs. Dorcas Johnson.

Chester volunteer firemen were authorized use of the junior high school auditorium April 4 for a minstrel show.

The Newell Jefferson PTA was authorized use of Wells Junior High School for a barbershop quartet show in the future.

Principal E. Russell Slack was authorized to use the Oak Glen gymnasium for a regional wrestling tournament in 1965.

Hancock County Court was authorized use of schools in Grant and Clay Districts May 12 for the primary election.

Mrs. Mary Fluharty was authorized to attend a supervision and curriculum development meeting April 5-9 in Miami, Fla., expenses paid.

The board approved the proposed work of the Pughtown Public Service District, which is attempting to construct central water and sewage systems in the village.

Mrs. Emma Roach of New Cumberland and Mrs. Carol Sue

Cox of Pughtown were awarded leaves of absences.

Next meeting will be Monday, when Supt. Robert H. Hall is expected to submit the 1964-65 budget.

Council To Study Sewer Charges

Council Monday night asked an investigation of complaints by Claiborne St. residents that they are being billed regularly for sewage service charges, although there is no sanitary sewer nearby that would serve their properties properly.

The complaint was filed personally with Council by Howard Hinton, 1021 Claiborne St.

After a long discussion, Council asked an investigation by Councilman Floyd Murray, chairman of the street committee, along with Councilman William Davis of the Fourth Ward, Engineer George Bloomgren and Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper.

HINTON alleged that he and other Claiborne St. residents are being billed for sewage service under legislation enacted several years ago by Council that provides the fees shall be paid by property owners whose homes are adjacent to a sewer, whether or not they are connected.

Council enacted the legislation to prevent householders from avoiding sewage charges in cases where lines are readily available.

Hinton said the city evidently feels he and other householders should hook their homes onto the Carpenters Run trunk line sanitary sewer, which was relocated through the area several years ago in connection with construction of the first stage of the Freeway.

But he said he checked with officials at the time the sewer job was under way and was told that he could not hook onto the trunk line. He said his home now is served by a septic tank.

Claiborne St. lies below Dresden Ave. and northwest of W. 9th St.

"I WAS having trouble with my septic tank line at the time and I wanted on the sewer," Hinton said. "I can't take advantage of the sewer and I don't feel I should be billed $12 to $15 a quarter for something I can't use."

Hinton said several of the homes in the area have toilet facilities in the basement, but the sewer is too high for the cellars to drain by gravity. The alternative would be to install sump pumps, he said. Hinton said he talked with Health Commissioner Septimus Cook and was told a sewer need drain only the first floor of a property.

"If the city will hook me up to the sewer and prove it works, I will pay for the hookup and the sewage fee," Hinton said. "I want proof the sewer is low enough to drain my property."

HINTON SAID it would cost $500 to hook his lines into the sewer. If they don't drain properly, it would cost another $200 to hook onto the septic tank again, he said.

Davis said he feels the Claiborne St. residents "have a valid complaint." He said he feels the householders should not be required to install sump pumps to drain their cellars "because any mechanical device is bound to fail once in awhile."

"I don't think they should be charged a sewer fee until it's rectified in some way," Davis added.

Then Council approved a motion for selection of a committee to investigate. The committee was named by President George E. Willshaw.

Mrs. Luther Parsons, 1015 Claiborne St., asked Council why "my sewage bill has been sent to Lisbon so that I have to pay it on my real estate taxes." Willshaw replied the ordinance calls for certification of delinquent sewage charges to the county auditor.

HINTON ALSO filed a complaint that storm water from Dresden Ave. runs onto Claiborne St. property. Davis said he has been discussing the problem with Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey, who has promised to seek a solution.

Council received and filed a letter from School Supt. Paul Blair saying that neither he nor the Board of Education favors a proposal to erect small shelters at school bus stops for students.

But Council later approved a suggestion by Councilman James Cunningham of the franchise committee authorizing a Columbus company called Shelterall of Ohio to erect five of the shelters here on a trial basis. The locations were not specified.

SOME RURAL school districts have erected the shelters recently. The small structures carry advertising signs on their sides, apparently as a way of defraying the costs.

Cunningham said he feels the shelters "would be good for school children and the general public, especially in areas where there is not much protection from the weather."

His suggestion for a trial was made in the form of a motion by Councilman Donald Hancock, seconded by Councilman Norman Bucher.

Bucher said he believes the public should be warned in advance of the impending expiration of a 90-day suspension of the ordinance that requires cars to be parked so as to face in the same direction as traffic moves in the adjoining lane.

The parking ordinance is suspended for 90 days each winter by the administration and the police department to permit residents of hillside streets to park their autos headed downgrade.

THE STREET committee was asked to investigate to learn when the 90-day order will expire.

"I don't want a lot of people to wake up some morning and find their cars tagged because the order expired and they didn't know about it," Bucher said.

Council received and filed a copy of the annual account of the trustees of the Will L. Thompson Trust Fund for maintenance and improvement of Thompson Park.

Signed by W. Leland Thompson and Atty. William H. Vodrey Jr., the report showed receipts of $1,825, disbursements of $6 and a balance of $1,619 for the period Jan. 1-Dec. 31, 1963. The report previously had been filed in Probate Court at Lisbon.

COUNCIL ALSO received the 53rd account of the trustees of the James Godwin Fund for the Relief of the Worthy Poor. It was signed by the trustees, C. W. Ashbaugh, C. W. Hendershot, Marion P. Thompson, Vodrey and A. L. White. The report showed receipts of $826, disbursements of $718 and a balance of $108 for the period Jan. 1-Dec. 31, 1963. The report also had been filed in Probate Court.

Council received a letter from the East Liverpool Merchants Association asking elimination of the "no turn" rule at Washington and E. 5th Sts. for a 90-day trial period. Signed by E. R. Chandler, secretary, the letter said ELMA voted to take the action at its meeting March 3.

The letter said the businessmen received "several complaints" against the regulation, which is in effect from 8:30 a. m. to 8:30 p. m. It is not in force from 8:30 p. m. to 8:30 a. m. ELMA also asked study of "walk lights" for busy downtown intersections. The letter was referred to the street committee.

COUNCIL also received a letter from the Board of Public Utilities asking enactment of legislation that would authorize the board to invest the water department depreciation fund in 4 per cent certificates of deposit "on a continuing basis."

The letter was signed by W. O. Schneider, chairman, who said the investments previously were made without legislative authority.

In the same letter, Schneider requested permission for investment of the sewer department replacement and improvement funds in U. S. government bonds. Both requests were referred to the ordinance committee.

Joseph Burcham of W. 4th St. reiterated a suggestion to combine the jobs of city treasurer and income tax commissioner. He also suggested installation of parking meters along the east side of City Hall, where municipal employees park their private cars.

The meeting opened with invocation by Maj. William Hathorn of the Salvation Army. Murray was excused.

The Lenten Story

BY WOODY ISHMAEL

THE PLACE OF THE SKULL

At Golgotha, which in Hebrew means "The Place of the Skull," they stripped Jesus of His garments and nailed Him to His cross. With Him, they also executed two thieves, one on each side.

And while He was dying the soldiers divided up His garments among themselves. When they came to His cloak, which was seamless, they decided to cast dice for it rather than tear it into pieces.

The Evangelist John, an eyewitness to the crucifixion, tells us this was done that the ancient prophecy might be fulfilled:

"They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots." (John XIX:24) 3-17

City Group Participates

Leadership Theme Used At Conference For BPW

Leadership from the individual through the community, state, national and world levels was discussed at a leadership conference of District 8 of the Ohio Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs Sunday at the Hotel Onesta in Canton. About 250 were registered.

Mrs. Doris McKinnon, president of the local BPW Club, spoke on "The Problems of Modern Communication." She said that in establishing good, clean lines of communication, one must have clear thoughts, singleness of purpose and dedication and devotion to duty.

"The Changing American Community and Group" was the subject of Bennett D. Taylor of Lisbon, county Boy Scout executive. He elaborated on the vast changes in the life of the woman of the past era in comparison to the role of the present day woman and how much more demand there is on her free time.

Mrs. Ethel Lynn Wambaugh, state personal development chairman, participated in the "buzz sessions" on the constant need to change by-laws and the formation of cliques and how they can be handled.

Miss Grace Woodward, corresponding secretary of the local club who was in charge of reservations, participated in the "Letter to the Editor" phase of the program, when each unit wrote letters regarding the hiring of married women.

"The Problems of Modern Leadership" was discussed by Miss Julia Van Court of Kent, a member of the state board. Miss Evelyn Thomas, president of the Youngstown BPW Club, used visual aids in her presentation of "The Function of Change."

Miss Arlene Farnham of Akron, past president of the National Secretaries Association, who has participated in the programs of the local secretaries group, assisted with the group discussion period on "What Can Be Done When the Discussion Gets Off the Track."

The main address was given by Mrs. Dorothy Patterson Sayre, president of Quota International, who spoke on "How Followers Become Leaders."

She said the work of leaders is made possible through accomplishments of followers, although they do not make the headlines.

Mrs. Goldie Smith, director of District 8, presided. Miss Laura Richardson, president of the Canton Club, conducted devotions and later, a question and answer session concerning communication through attentive-ness.

Evaluation of the entire conference was summed up by Mrs. Wambaugh. Mrs. Irene Hum, president of the Columbiana Club, was in charge of registration.

Mrs. Lillie Belle Leonard, Mrs. Ethel Harvey and Mrs. Clara Hall were table hostesses for the dinner served on the balcony and in the dining hall.

Centerpieces, designed by Miss Joan Witt, who handled transportation, and Mrs. Wambaugh, were spring bonnets, made of styrofoam, with the brim covered with flowers and the BPW emblem highlighting the gold sprayed gavel adorning the crown.

Barron Picks Callie Tsapis For New Post

"I'm very pleased," Miss Callie Tsapis, Chester attorney, said today in commenting on her appointment to the newly-created West Virginia Commission on the Status of Women by Gov. W. W. Barron.

The 26-member commission is to make recommendations "which will enable West Virginia to realize its full potential for women in our democratic form of government," Gov. Barron said.

Mrs. John Scott of Oak Hill will head the commission. Many areas in which women might assist will be studied, the governor said.

Gov. Barron said the commission is the first step "toward utilizing more fully the brainpower of the state's women."

Miss Tsapis, candidate for the Democratic nomination as Hancock County prosecutor in the May 12 primary, was advised of her appointment in a letter from the state's chief executive.

"I'm very pleased; I know there are many fields in which women's status can be approached and enhanced by having a group which makes it a point to study what their problems are, and what the barriers are, and going ahead and taking action on it," Miss Tsapis said.

"I know of complaints of women in industry from my service in the State Legislature, regarding salary, positions and work required," she said.

Miss Tsapis served three consecutive terms as member of the House of Delegates from Hancock County.

Health Board Sets Probe In Dump Permit

LISBON — Acting on complaints from about 40 householders, the County Health Board agreed Monday night to suspend a license issued to Robert George of New Waterford for operation of landfill trash dump near Washingtonville until a geologist from the Ohio Department of Natural Resources can report on the possibility of contamination of the underground water supply in Washingtonville wells.

The suspension was authorized after three members of the board met in Village Hall with 40 persons who appeared as individuals or as representatives of organizations or governmental units. Atty. Howard Cole, president, conducted the meeting, which was moved out of the law library because of the crowd.

William Davis led a protesting delegation from Salem Township. He said the proposed dump would cause water contamination, air pollution and gas explosions, resulting in loss of property values. He said it also would attract vermin and dogs. He said the land is needed for future home sites.

David Patterson of Leetonia spoke for the Parent - Teacher Associations of the Leetonia - Washingtonville area, which have 452 members. He said the organizations are opposed to establishment of the dump.

Wayne Holloway appeared as a member of the Leetonia Board of Education and the village Ruritan Club. He said gas in abandoned coal mines in the area might be set off by a spark or by burning rubbish.

Anthony Dattilo, speaking for the Washingtonville Kiwanis Club, said the dump would be "untidy" and added it is too close to school property.

William Radler, president of Washingtonville Council, declared he feels it "useless" to start another dump in the area. He cited the fact a dump has been in operation three years on Routes 62 and 45 in Mahoning County.

Ed Wilhelm, Salem Township trustee, said the trustees were not notified of plans to establish the dump. He said trustees will not endorse a commercial dump in the township.

Orville Bates, representing the Ohio Department of Natural Resources, said he does not know if the agency will approve operation of the dump.

Atty. Jack Cohen of East Palestine represented George. He declared that opposition would arise no matter where George attempted to establish a dump. He said George has operated a dump in Columbiana village for

Tie Vote's Rare

Board Splits Over Fee For Use Of Auditorium

In one of the rare instances, the Board of Education had a tie vote Monday night when balloting on a motion to rent the Memorial Auditorium to the Tri - State Basketball Tournament April 2-4 at a fee of $100 a night.

John R. Woomer and Mrs. Nessie R. Dunlop, vice president, favored the proposal recommended by Supt. Paul H. Blair while Harry D. McConville, president, and Samuel W. Brown dissented.

THE SPLIT vote apparently means the board will reconsider the proposal at another meeting. However, the next regular meeting is not scheduled until April 6.

In making his recommendation, the superintendent proposed that board agree to rent the M-A at "not less than $100 a night and we will try to absorb the custodial fees."

Blair said the last two years the board has charged the tournament a flat $85 and had charged the same fee plus custodial time for two prior years. He pointed out, however, that late last year the board increased the rental fee from $80 to $100 a night plus custodial fees.

Calling the tournament "very important to East Liverpool," McConville said the tournament "is on its last legs financially and needs help."

WOOMER replied, "I'm afraid if we start changing the rules, we will run into trouble. You can't run a business like this."

"I'm afraid if we lose this money, it will be another step backwards," McConville declared. He pointed out other communities subsidize similar tournaments, sometimes through the Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Dunlop said she would like to see the Chamber or merchants subsidize the annual event "but not the school board."

Prior to considering the rental proposal, the board had authorized the rental of the M-A to the Blue and White Nonpareil Club on March 24 for a dance for high school students. Only custodial fees will be charged.

It also authorized rental of Westgate auditorium on May 23 to the Columbiana County Youth-for-Christ for a religious several years and "very few" complaints have been received. Erwin Calvin, former mayor of Columbiana, termed George "one of the best operators" of the dump in Columbiana.

He said a former operation brought many complaints, but when George took over the protests "were very minor." He said while he served as mayor George kept the "best landfill operation I ever have seen."

Douglas Hasbrouck, principal sanitary engineer of the State Health Department's district office in Cuyahoga Falls, said the site was inspected Jan. 16 by a sanitary engineer. The site was found "satisfactory," he said.

Hasbrouck said he does not believe water contamination will be a problem, but recommended a study by a geologist from the Department of Natural Resources. He termed the area "well isolated" and said it is 2,000 feet from the nearest residence.

Harry Stockdale, county sanitarian, reported on how the site was selected. Charles Gause, Hanover Township trustee, talked on dump operations in Hanover Township.

George said he "went about getting the site legally" that he will operate within the law. Otherwise, the dump would be closed, he said. George plans to start operations about April 1.

In other business, the board returned all its officers for new terms.

They are: Cole, president; Felix Butch, vice president; and Dr. C. S. Palmer, secretary. Dr. Palmer, who resigned recently as health commissioner, said he is remaining on duty because rally for $20 plus custodial fees.

THE BOARD accepted the resignations of Mrs. Esther Thomas of Lincoln, Mrs. Joanne Six of Westgate Junior High and Mrs. Maureen Harrison and Mrs. Lillian Ridge of Taft.

Mrs. Ridge and Mrs. Thomas, who are retiring, and Mrs. Six, who is resigning for "personal reasons," will remain until the end of the term while Mrs. Harrison, who is moving to Dayton, will end her duties Friday.

The board approved a request from the Board of Elections for the use of schools as polling places at the May 5 primaries and the use of the high school as a registration center on March 25, the final day for voters to qualify.

The motion was made by Mrs. Dunlop who said she believes the board should investigate further, pointing out it "pays quite a stiff fee for elections" but charges the election board for only custodial expenses.

THE BOARD decided to check the deed to Patterson Field to see if there are any restrictions on use of the field on Sundays after receiving a request from Wayne Craig, American Legion Post 374 baseball chairman, to play games on Sunday. Robert Malkin, a member of the Veterans Council, appeared before the board to ask that American flags be flown at the schools, citing particularly Central School where he said no flag has been on the staff for three weeks.

Malkin said he had called the lack of a flag to the attention of the superintendent, Principal Carl Peltini and some board members but no action has been taken. He pointed out there was good weather on Monday but there was no flag at Central School.

The board received a letter from the Taft Home and School Association thanking it for installation of another furnace in the basement which permits use of the basement for music practice and as a teachers' lounge.

Others attending the meeting were Carl F. Peltini, high school principal; Ray Peduzzi, assistant football coach; Ted Burke, Blue and White president; Charles Winters, Louis Yanni and Joe McCormack.

the board is unable to find another commissioner.

The board approved the 1965 budget, totaling approximately the same as the 1964 outlay.

It calls for estimated receipts of $42,913, including $27,238 from local taxation, $4,650 in federal grants-in-aid, $2,000 in state subsidies, $9,000 in sanitation fees and $25 in miscellaneous receipts.

The estimated expenditures are $34,766 for salaries, $2,000 for travel and $5,546 for operation expenses.

Dr. Palmer reported the department issued 24 plumbing and 22 sewage permits in February. Stockdale said he made 11 food service inspections, 10 on refuse, 7 on water, 9 on nuisance complaints, two on sewage, four at schools and one at a camp.

Eugene Cover, plumbing inspector, said he made 45 plumbing inspections and 12 sewage checks. There were nine water inspections, four on nuisances, two on food and two on dumps, he said. County Nurse Ruth S. Kauffman listed 212 immunizations and 132 vaccinations. There were 55 cases of mumps, one of scarlet fever, two each of infectious hepatitis and measles, four of chickenpox and three of venereal disease.

The board will discuss applications for the health commissioner's post at its next meeting April 20.

Crash Hurts Pair At Unity

Two elderly women were injured late Monday afternoon when their car rammed the side of a passing tractor - trailer truck at Unity, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported. Intruder Breaks Window, Obtains Soda From Store

Eighteen bottles of soft drinks were stolen by an intruder who broke a window Monday night or early today at Bridge's Market, 1000 St. John St., police reported.

A stone was used to break a 2-x-4-foot plate glass window sometime between 8:30 last night and 7:30 this morning, officers said. The intruder then reached through the opening and removed three six - packs containing 16-ounce bottles of soda, officers said.

Patrolman H. W. Bosworth investigated. Harry Bridge was identified as operator of the store.

Meanwhile, an unsuccessful attempt was made to enter Finlay's Superette, 832 St. Clair Ave., a food market operated by Larry Finlay, police said.

Out Of The Air

By ALAN GILL

Bogarde Fits Into 'Little Moon'

If Julie Harris, with her shy, poignant face and a fire blazing steadily within, seems made to order for the little Daughter of Charity in the celebrated TV drama called "Little Moon of Alban," then Dirk Bogarde is the perfect British lieutenant to play opposite her.

Alan Gill

dashing, cynical, blunt, and a bit malicious. (Miss Harris, the troubled saint, and Mr. Bogarde, the badly wounded skeptic, will be showing up in the entirely new "Hall of Fame" production of the James Costigan play Wednesday night at 7:30).

"I'VE NEVER been on American TV and haven't even done any English TV since just after the war," said the blackly handsome actor between rehearsals last week.

"The country's too bloody small for television. You recite just two lines into the camera and in those few seconds you're overexposed."

"As for plays, I haven't done one in three years because a stage role is such a horror to learn and a long run will bore you sick."

"I met James Costigan on a ship a few years ago and he told me he wanted to write a script for me. I'd been longing to work with Julie Harris ever since some movie contract or other kept me from starting with her in 'I Am a Camera,' and I told Costigan: 'If you write something for me, make it with Julie, won't you?'"

"HE SENT along the script of 'Little Moon of Alban' in 1957, but I couldn't do it and Chris Plummer got the role. Now, here it comes along again and I've got it. Since rehearsals started, Julie's been very kind and sweet and bloody patient."

"Moon," I suppose, would do well in England, though it's sentimental. Europe is losing its sentimentality, even if the no-longer young still can go for a piece of nostalgia like the London musical, "Blitz!"

"ONLY A war movie like 'The Great Escape' gets by now with the kids, because it's so jolly exciting. And Steve McQueen's got every girl's heart in Europe beating like a tomtom."

"Mainly, though, the kids are sick to death of nostalgia and sentiment and are turning to movies like 'This Sporting Life' and 'The Servant.'"

"The Servant," appropriately enough, is about a gentleman's faithful master down the paths of total corruption; the thing is about to open in America; it's just been nominated for eight British Oscars; the unsavory title role is played by none other than Dirk Bogarde, who also is a partner in its production.

A BLITHE 44, Bogarde can afford to get away from the kind of role that made him the idol — from 1951 to 1957 by his calculation — of every English bobby soxer, young thing and old toddler.

"English ladies, you see, are as mad as ladies anywhere. Between 4 months and 12 years, the girls go for the Beatles. In that wide area between 12 and 45, it's the usual matinee idol stuff. Between 45 and 80 — well, that's when it begins to get a bit scary."

"But I'll be leaving all that behind one of these days. You've got to drop off somewhere. And production's my target."

"Gone are those tours of the provinces, in an Anouilh play, when you'd find, after each performance, the mounds of pop bottles and half-eaten meat pies in the stalls."

"Gone are all those movie roles as good punks, bad and the romantic 'Doctor at Sea.'"

"I've played everything on screen, except perhaps Marie Dressler and Elizabeth Taylor and I'm more interested now in two or three companies that are doing odd little things."

"I'VE GOT a pay-TV company going, for example — British Home Entertainment — that's back-stacked with film we've done on some Fonteyn ballets, the Olivier-Plowright 'Uncle Vanya' and other properties."

"We'll perhaps get on the air with it in a year. Just now, I plan to stay around New York for a bit: a strange city, so much to do in it."

"I'm at the Plaza, instead of the Algonquin, which is where all the English actors stay. Why should I cross the Atlantic to see people I wouldn't walk across the street to see at home? There at the Algonquin they sit: little serrated rows of Englishmen."

A moment later, Bogarde was back in the rehearsal hall, turning on Lt. Kenneth Boyd's bitter smile and crying in Kenneth's voice a frustrated challenge to heaven.

Bringing Up A Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

Cigarette Report Stirs Controversy

Cigarette smoking is a cause of lung cancer and other deadly diseases. This is the unanimous verdict of a panel of scientists named by the U. S. Surgeon General to study all available evidence of the effects of smoking on health.

Since cigarette advertising is a Dr. Garry Myers leading source of revenue for the broadcasting companies, a contest will be on between the dissemination of information on the dangers to health from smoking cigarettes and the advertisements on TV aimed at winning all persons, including our youths, to smoke more cigarettes; also, to lure many a youth to begin smoking.

It will be a race between facts about the harm of cigarette smoking and fiction implying the opposite, a struggle between the educational efforts of the home and school and the glamorous appeal on TV from Madison Avenue.

SINCE TV appeals aim at making the smoking of cigarettes a sign of manliness and grownupness, they will have a strong advantage in the contest, especially with children, the potential consumer of cigarettes in the future.

There may be some federal legislation curbing the alleged evils of some cigarette advertising, even requiring the appearance of certain warning statements on packages of cigarettes. Popular pressures may bring about some changes.

Meanwhile, the public schools will undoubtedly present the facts from the Surgeon General's report to children, as may most leaders of childhood and youth organizations.

Likewise, many parents will.

As so many teachers, youth leaders and parents are themselves constant and heavy smokers, their persuasive influence might not always be very powerful. A few of them, of course, may choose to quit smoking.

WHILE MOST parents and teachers who don't smoke or who quit the habit may, naturally, influence children not to smoke, a few, alas, will defeat their own purpose by stirring up conflicts with their children and students who, in consequence, may grow more determined to smoke.

I can imagine certain parents who always have been opposed to smoking and who may have been extremely emotional about the matter, becoming worse in relation to the teenager who smokes or clandestinely begins to do so. In their emotional anguish the parents will cite the figures from the Surgeon General's Office.

The upshot may be that some youths will definitely resolve to smoke and to smoke more heavily. Besides the parent-child relationship will then be impaired, and damage to both health and family relationship will result.

Parents might do better not to use the government report as the "ultimate" weapon, but to concentrate on winning their child's love and esteem.

My bulletin, "A Parent's Prayer," may be secured by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Protest Filed On Palestine Flood Water

EAST PALESTINE — City Council Monday night was presented a petition by about 20 residents of the E. North Ave. area demanding the city take action to halt high water damage in basements or they will refuse to pay their April sewage charges.

Council retaliated with an order calling for an immediate inspection of homes in the area to determine where downspouts from houses are connected to the sanitary sewers. June 15 was set as the deadline for remedying any such hookup. A $50 fine was set for any violation after the deadline.

The spokesman for the homeowners was Wayne Straley. It was pointed out during the discussion that homes in various parts of the city other than E. North Ave. had flooded cellars during a downpour a week ago.

Some residents said they had 12 inches of water in the basements, causing damage to furnaces and other installations.

Council passed two pieces of legislation. One was an ordinance controlling traffic at various intersections throughout the city, creating one-way traffic on Thomas St. from W. North Ave. to W. Grant St. from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. for the convenience of school buses. The street leads to the high school.

The other ordinance provides for the purchase of a new police cruiser. It authorizes the expenditure of $3,000 for the new cruiser.

Eleven members of the unit attended the Beaver County rally of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Saturday in New Brighton. The first, second and third degrees were exemplified. There was a banquet and entertainment in the evening.

Next meeting will be Monday night at 7:30.

REVIVAL GUEST. The Rev. James A. Robb of Ontario, Canada, a member of the General Conference Evangelistic Board of the Free Methodist Church, will be speaker for revival services at the Wellsville church, beginning Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. and continuing nightly through Easter Sunday. The Rev. W. M. Brown is pastor.

William E. Van Dyke of Wellsville R. D. 1 $10 and costs, with the fine suspended, for driving without a muffler.

William F. Bowen, 932 Florence Ave., $50 and costs for driving without a driver's license. The judge suspended $45 of the fine.

Roy J. Flowers of New Waterford, $15 and costs for failure to file for a registration, and Ora Lou McKnight of Negley, $15 and costs for speeding.

Rejected By Board

Faculty Version Of Calendar Out

Because Veterans' Day was not included as a holiday, a calendar for the 1965-66 term, overwhelmingly approved by the teachers, was rejected Monday night by the Board of Education.

Teachers voted on four possible calendars — two prepared by a faculty committee and two prepared by administrative officials. The possible calendars prepared by the administration fixed both Veterans' Day and Memorial Day as holidays. One started classes a week earlier and the other cut the length of the Easter vacation.

SAMUEL W. BROWN, who consistently voted against adoption of the calendars in his previous term because Veterans' Day was not designated as a holiday, led the fight against the adoption. He was joined by John R. Woomer and Harry D. McConville, president. All three are veterans.

A motion by Mrs. Nessie R. Dunlop that the recommendation of Supt. Paul H. Blair be accepted died for the lack of a second. Blair recommended the calendar approved by the teachers by a 4-1 margin be adopted. The board later unanimously approved Brown's motion that the teachers be advised of the board's action and be given an opportunity to reconsider.

The calendar the teachers favored provided for a general teachers' meeting on Sept. 8 with classes beginning on Sept. 9. School will be dismissed on June 11.

THERE WOULD be no classes on Nov. 6 because of an East - Central Ohio Teachers Association meeting in Canton, Nov. 26-27 for Thanksgiving. Christmas vacation would start Dec. 21 with classes resuming Jan. 4 and the Easter vacation would start April 12 with pupils returning on April 19, Easter Monday.

The second most popular calendar among the teachers retained the same dates with the exception the Christmas vacation would start on Dec. 24 with classes still resuming Jan. 4.

The third calendar provided for classes to begin Sept. 2 and dismiss June 9. Besides counting Veterans' Day and Memorial Day as holidays, it also included Labor Day but kept the same Christmas and Easter vacations favored by the teachers.

THE LEAST popular among the teachers was a calendar providing for classes to begin Sept. 9 with school dismissing June 11. It included Veterans' Day and Memorial Day as holidays, kept Christmas vacation from Dec. 21 to Jan. 4 but confined the Easter vacation to Maundy Thursday April 17, Good Friday, April 16 and Easter Monday, April 19. Classes would resume April 20.

When the calendar was introduced, Brown recalled his opposition during his previous term and said he would continue to oppose school calendars which did not include Veterans' Day as a holiday. One day of the Easter vacation could be cut to provide for the other holiday, he said.

Woomer said he would "go along with Brown" and McConville also agreed, pointing out patriotism and prayer are disappearing from schools. The president said it is up to groups such as school boards to reverse the trend.

MRS. DUNLOP, vice president, said she was very much in favor of Veterans' Day, but said she understood the schools provide a program. "If they (pupils) stay at home, I wonder if they will observe the holiday or go out and play?"

Woomer commented, "It will show that this board recognizes the fact that it is a day that would be observed."

After Mrs. Dunlop reiterated that she favored Veterans' Day as a holiday "if they know what it means," Brown declared, "Perhaps we should keep them in school on Thanksgiving so they know what that day means."

Blair said there is special emphasis in the classrooms on Veterans' Day and said the administration felt they could provide a better program with the children in school.

VETERANS' DAY falls in the period observed as National Education Week, the superintendent pointed out, and observance of Veterans' Day is included in the school programs.

"What did you do last year between 7-9 when parents visited the high school?" Brown asked.

After Mrs. Dunlop refused to consider an amendment to her motion for approval of the calendar, McConville asked for a second but none was forthcoming. A minute later, Brown's motion that the teachers be advised of the action was approved and the discussion ended.

'Police Week' Events Slated

Plans for observance of "Police Week" May 10-16 were launched Monday night when Fraternal Order of Police Lodge 29 and FOP Associates Lodge 26 met at City Hall.

Patrolman Howard Frontz, chairman of the committee in charge of the observance, said displays will be arranged in store windows as part of the program.

He asked area residents with old police equipment or related articles that could be used in displays to get in touch with any officer. Arrangements will be made to pick up the items and return them after the displays are removed, Frontz said.

Plans also were discussed for a public dance May 16. Tentative arrangements were made to present awards to officers distinguished by outstanding service in the preceding year. Patrolman William A. Devon heads the dance committee.

Patrolman Jerry Adkins, president, conducted the FOP session and Judson W. Allison, president, was in charge of the FOPA meeting.

Eleven officers and six FOPA members attended. Refreshments were served.

A conference for chapters Sept. 2-5 at New York was announced. Bills totaling $55 were paid. Floyd Trachsel of Columbus, district director for MD, and Mrs. Leo Jenkins, patient service chairman, spoke on the services provided for 12 patients in the county.

Next meeting will be April 20 at a site to be announced.

Area Man, 45, Burned When Flames Hit Auto

A Y. & O. Rd. man suffered burns of the right palm when a 1959 auto caught fire in the driveway of his home Monday night about 10:30.

Matt Marcum, 45, of R. D. 1 was treated at City Hospital. The family said neighbors noticed the blaze and notified them. The interior of the auto was badly damaged, the family said.

Mayor's Vivid Green Outshines All Others

Although he confessed there's very little Irish in his ancestry, Mayor Merrill D. Hall led all the rest in the traditional wearin' of the green as City Hall marked St. Patrick's Day.

The mayor showed up in a positively vivid green necktie set off with small polka dots. The color was so bright it appeared almost fluorescent, outshining the greens worn by many others on the municipal staff.

E. Allan McKeever, deputy city auditor and a real Irishman, turned up with a tie almost as bright as the mayor's. Most other City Hall employees had bits of green in their attire today.

Funds OK'd By Southern Local Board

The annual appropriation totaling $525,767, an increase of approximately $20,000 over the 1963 fund, was adopted by the Southern Local Board of Education at a special meeting Monday night at the high school near Salineville.

A breakdown shows $425,367 in the general fund, $62,541 in the bond retirement fund, and $37,859 in the cafeteria fund.

The increase is due to a rise in student enrollment, more teachers and expanded services, board officials said.

It was pointed out this is about $20,000 less than the anticipated operating expenditure will be for the year. The lesser figure was used as the board must stay within the anticipated revenues. "It all points to the need for further operating funds," officials said.

The district will vote on an additional operating levy in the May primary.

In other business, the board accepted the resignation of the clerk, employed another and changed the meeting dates.

Mrs. Lamont Faulkner of Salineville resigned as clerk for reasons of health. She had served about a year.

The board then rescinded a previous resolution making the clerk's job full time and hired Robert Cole, cashier at the Citizens' Bank in Salineville, as clerk for the balance of the year.

Cole also is clerk of Washington Township Trustees.

The board voted to meet the third Monday of each month at 7:30 p. m. at the high school. The meetings have been held on the second Monday.

A public meeting will be held Monday night at 8 at the high school to discuss the financial problems of the district. Letters are being sent today to the officers of all organizations in the district, inviting them to attend.

Council May Get Yearly Fund Bill About March 30

The annual appropriation ordinance, spelling out the city's fiscal plans for all of 1964, should be ready for presentation to Council about Monday, March 30, Councilman Robert W. Sample, finance committee chairman, announced Monday night.

Sample told Council virtually all of the work has been completed on drafting the ordinance. He said he will seek an informal conference with the other members of Council within the next week in order to explain the figures.

When Council confers on the appropriation, it will be able to set a date for a special session for its enactment. Sample commented. The next regular meeting falls April 6, but Sample said he feels the ordinance should be passed prior to April 1.

Since Jan. 1, the city has been operating on a temporary appropriation ordinance allocating funds for routine expenses through March 31. It's a standard procedure followed each year while the committee is working on the fiscal picture for the full 12 months.

Sponsored By Rotary

3 To Attend World Affairs Event

Three area boys who will join student delegates from four states at the 18th annual World Affairs Institute in Cincinnati Friday and Saturday confer with George Hargraves, seated left, chairman of the Rotary Club's youth service committee.

Local Rotarians send delegates from the Junior Classes of area high schools to the Cincinnati event each year as a project, and generally it's the first opportunity for many to travel by jetliner.

This year's delegates are Michael Fisher of Beaver Local, right; John Burch of Oak Glen, left; and Joseph Massey of East Liverpool, standing.

Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher Jr. of Calcutta, R. D. 1, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burch, 912 Grant St., Newell, and Mr. and Mrs. James Massey, 696 Spring Grove Ave., East Liverpool.

"The United States and Latin America in this Era of Cold War" is the theme for the two-day institute, launched in 1947 by the Cincinnati Rotary Club and the Cincinnati Council on World Affairs, in co-operation with the Crosley Broadcasting Corp.

The programs will be presented in the Netherland-Hilton Hotel. The opening address on Friday night will be by a leading U. S. scholar. On Saturday morning, a panel of three experts — from the fields of private enterprise, government and scholarship — will discuss the varying viewpoints of these U. S. policy issues, within the perspective of the country's total endeavor in the Cold War. Subsequently, the student delegates will discuss their own individual ideas and conclusions about these issues in their roundtables. After lunch on Saturday, the institute concludes with a statement about the topic by the ambassador of a Latin-American nation.

Public and parochial schools from Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and West Virginia in co-operation with their local Rotary Club will send delegates.

The boys are to be writing an essay of "Our American Heritage."

A committee will be selected April 24 to judge the essays.

Refreshments were served by Den 9.

South Carolina Wreck Injures Mrs. J. A. Reaney

Mrs. James A. Reaney of Gilson Ave. remains in a Florence (S.C.) hospital today with injuries suffered Saturday afternoon in an auto accident as she and her husband, executive vice president of the First National Bank, were returning from a Florida vacation.

Mrs. Reaney was injured when she struck the dashboard. She will be hospitalized for several days while X-rays are made to determine the extent of the injuries.

Although bruised, Reaney was not hospitalized.

The Reaneys were traveling on Route 301 in a rainstorm en route to East Liverpool after spending a three-week vacation with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harp, in Jupiter, Fla.

The family said a southbound car stopped suddenly and a young New Jersey driver, headed toward Florida, swung out to avoid the halted car and pulled into the path of the Reaney auto.

Both autos were demolished and the New Jersey driver was fined for reckless driving, the family said.

Gas Concern Will Lay New $12,000 Line

Work was launched Monday on installation of a new $12,000 main for the Ohio Valley Gas Co. to serve an area along outer St. Clair Ave. and in Maplewood.

Harold Sneddon, manager of the utility, explained details of the project in a brief speech to Council last night, also listing data on a similar job in the same area.

Contractor for the project is Wirt & Starn of Wooster, which performed similar work here for the gas company last year, Sneddon said.

Plans call for installation of 1,900 feet of four-inch line extending south on St. Clair Ave. from a point near St. Clair and Armstrong Ln. to Azalea Ave. The line then will extend west on Azalea Ave. about 220 feet to a future regulator station site.

From that point, 340 feet of 16-inch line will be laid east to St. Clair Ave. The project will improve service on both sides of St. Clair Ave. from the city limits to Oak Grove Ave., including Maplewood, Bloomfield and Jennings Ave., Sneddon said.

The two projects, plus several smaller jobs, are being done in advance of the city's $846,000 rebuilding of St. Clair Ave. from Princeton Ave. to the city limits, Sneddon said.

The second major project calls for installation of 1,415 feet of six-inch main from St. Clair Ave. east on Armstrong Ln. to a point just east of Monticello Pl., he said. The cost is estimated at $9,000.

The new line will improve service to Cain Heights, the Hill Addition, Armstrong Ln. and Curry St., Sneddon said.

Harker Brush Fire Is First For Season

Harry Smith, Liverpool Township fire warden, said the first brush fire of the season occurred Monday afternoon in the vicinity of Harker Ave.

The blaze broke out about 12:45 p. m. and spread over the hill toward Clark Ave., burning off about an acre before it was extinguished by East End firemen and the Liverpool East department of Dixonville.

He said the fire endangered two homes until a change in the wind.

Apparently started by a person in the neighborhood burning corrugated boxes, he warned of the danger in burning materials in windy weather.

Smith said there is much dried foliage lying close to the ground, making a definite fire hazard.

Special Heating Problem?

⌈ GAS SOLVES IT BEST ⌋

Heating a rambling, older home? Circulating fresh air gas heat will keep every room, every corner comfortably warm. And because gas is so thrifty, you can afford to heat the whole house, even the basement.

Adding a room or enclosing a porch? A gas space heater can be installed quickly and easily. Choose a free-standing console design or one that can be recessed. Some take up less than one cubic foot of room space. All styles have built-in or wall thermostats... many can be flued through a wall and do not require a chimney.

Need more basement space? New gas furnaces are so small and compact, you will have plenty of space for that basement game room you've been wanting. Pipes and ducts can be hidden out of view.

Is yours a compact, modern home? Modern gas furnaces are the perfect choice for homes where space is limited. So compact they can fit into a corner, a closet, an attic. Ducts can be located below floors or above ceilings.

Like even, hot water heat? Modern gas fired boilers are compact, use little fuel. Heating units are designed to act as baseboards so they don't interfere with room decoration... coils can also be imbedded in plaster ceilings or cement floors.

Planning for whole-house air conditioning? It's easy, when you have a forced-air gas heating system. In many cases, one add-on unit provides your whole house with air-conditioned comfort.

Whatever system you choose, you can count on big savings with economical gas. Remember—gas heating costs only about one-fourth as much as wire resistance heating. For complete information on specialized gas installations, call your local gas company office or your favorite heating dealer.

Lombardi Happy Hornung Is Back; No Trade Seen

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Halfback Paul Hornung will get a second chance to show his second effort for the Green Bay Packers. And Alex Karras gets a crack at filling the big hole in the defensive line of the Detroit Lions that he left there last year.

Both Hornung and Karras, set down indefinitely last April 17 for betting on National Football League games, have been reinstated.

NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, who handed down the suspensions, lifted them Monday with a statement that emphasized that neither man had been charged with betting against his own team or not giving his best in every game.

Rozelle added that the conduct of Hornung and Karras was taken into consideration in the lifting of the suspension.

Hornung said he would start in May to get his legs back in shape for the 1964 season. The Packers, three-time Western Conference winners until last season, fell to second behind the Chicago Bears in the 1963 campaign.

Hornung's shoes never were filled satisfactorily. The former Notre Dame Golden Boy, famed for his second effort running, sharp blocking and threat as a passing halfback, also was the team's leading place kicker.

He led the league in scoring for three straight seasons and holds the scoring record. The Lions also fell off with Karras out of action. The 250-pound tackle was the standout in what was probably the league's best defensive line. The Lions never did find a replacement.

Dukes Open NIT Bid Against Army; Drake, New Mexico Clash Tonight

NEW YORK (AP) — Something has to give when Drake and New Mexico collide tonight in a National Invitation Tournament quarter-final test and it may be the Madison Square Garden ceiling.

The Drake and New Mexico jumping jacks, tallest of the NIT's original 12-team field, figure to do some fancy leaping in tonight's basketball doubleheader opener.

Army tackles Duquesne in the nightcap, with the survivors joining New York University and Bradley in Thursday night's semifinals.

The Bulldogs-Lobos summit has the makings of an ideal match-up. Drake, from the classy Missouri Valley Conference, and New Mexico's Western Athletic Conference co-champions have much in common — including the tourney's strongest backboard arrays.

"We grind 'em down," Drake Coach Maurice John said last Saturday after 6-foot-4 Gene West (27 points), 6-6 McCoy Mc-

Lemore (19 rebounds), 6-10 Larry Prins and Co. hurtled Pitt 87-62 in a first-round game.

"They (Drake) have a big, strong club," said New Mexico pilot Bob King, an Iowa native and one-time Drake graduate.

Nonpareil Club Sets Meeting Tonight

The Blue and White Nonpareil Club will meet tonight at 7:30 at the YMCA. A discussion will be held on the petition concerning athletics presented at Monday night's Board of Education meeting and plans for the annual Junior Basketball Tournament will be aired.

student, after watching the Bulldogs outscore Pitt. "But we should be able to rebound with them."

The Lobos, in fact, can rebound with anybody. Utah was the only regular season foe to beat New Mexico off the boards and the Lobos buried the Utes under a 52-18 rebounding bulge in a return meeting.

Ira (The Large) Harge, a 6-8 pivotman whom WAC coaches have compared favorably with Bill Russell, is the Lobos' leader. Harge heads up a starting five whose average height of 6-5 is an inch shorter than Drake's.

Both clubs are defense minded and both work off a deliberate offensive pattern. The Lobos led the nation defensively, allowing opponents an average of 56 points per game. Drake's average yield was 61 points.

The second game matches a rugged, aggressive Army team, 64-62 surprise victor over St. Bonaventure last Saturday, against a swift Duquesne club which revolves around backcourt snipers Willie Somerset (24.7 average) and Ron Willard (16.6).

Somerset, a 5-10 speedball, has recovered from an ankle injury he suffered in practice a week ago.

Mike Silliman, a 6-6 sophomore from Louisville, Ky., is the 7-6 Cadets' top scorer and rebounder. Silliman split 36 points with soph Bill Helkie in the St. Bonaventure upset.

Board Has No Comment On Petition Of Athletics

Accusing the school administration of de-emphasizing athletics in recent years, a petition containing what sponsors estimated at 500-600 signatures was presented Monday night to the Board of Education, asking that it adopt a five-part athletic policy and make "immediate changes" if needed in both administrative and coaching personnel.

Presented by Atty. Donald E. Smith and Herman L. (Bud) Steffen, the petition was received without comment by the board.

Talk about the petition has been widespread for several weeks. Some observers said the petition was asking the board to adopt a "produce or get out" policy while others said it did not advocate such drastic action.

Here's the text of the petition: "We, the undersigned citizens of the East Liverpool School District, being sincerely interested in the welfare of our children and of our community, being firmly convinced that varsity athletics are both a desirable and necessary part of the educational system; that a successful athletic program benefits the individual athlete, the school system and the community in general;

"And further believing that the school administration has during recent years deliberately advocated a program of declining emphasis on scheduling and coaching standards which caused injurious results to individual players, the student body and the community;

"We therefore respectfully petition the Board of Education to adopt as a formal policy of intent, the following recommendations as being both salutary and desirable:

"Further, we petition this Board of Education to effectuate said program by such immediate changes in coaching and administrative personnel as may be required, having duly considered the proposed scheduling commitments of the administration and the recent athletic records achieved by the present coaching staffs."

Kansas State Only Team Unranked In NCAA Play

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
KANSAS CITY (AP)—Kansas State is the only team in the semifinals of the NCAA basketball championship that didn't achieve a high national rating.

Lawrenceville Youths To Sign Up Saturday

Don Brown, district director, has reminded Lawrenceville area boys eight through 15-years-old, and interested in playing with the Lawrenceville team of the South Side Hot Stove League, that sign-ups will be held Saturday from 1:30 to 4:30 p. m. at the Lawrenceville Fire Station. Any boys signing to play for the first time are asked to bring their birth certificates.

this season and Coach Tex Winter is just as happy it worked out that way.

"No, I don't complain about that," Winter said by telephone from Manhattan, Kan., today. "Let 'em have the high ratings — and the pressure that goes with it."

The others in Friday night's semifinals are UCLA, Michigan and Duke, who finished one, two, three in the final Associated Press poll. Kansas State was not ranked.

"We were No. 1 all season once," Winter recalled. "and I know the pressure that can put on you. There's enough pressure built into this thing (the NCAA championships) that we don't need any more."

"I'm glad to let 'em have the high ratings."

The year he referred to was 1959 when his Wildcats compiled a 25-2 record and finished in the No. 1 spot, only to lose to Cincinnati for the midwest regional championship.

This year the Wildcats put together a 22-5 mark in winning the Big Eight title and the Midwest Regional. They'll play John Wooden's swift, unbeaten, UCLA team, 28-0, in the nightcap Friday. Michigan, Big Ten co-champ, 22-4 plays Atlantic Coast Conference champion Duke, 25-4, in the first game.

The winners clash in the title game Saturday night, scheduled for national television coverage starting at 9 p. m., CST.

None of the four semifinalists ever has won before. Kansas State came the closest, reaching the final game before losing to Kentucky 68-58 in 1951.

UCLA is making its sixth NCAA appearance. Its highest previous appearance was fourth in 1962. Duke was third last year. Michigan hasn't been in the tourney since 1948.

Rhodes Eyeing Peacemaker Role In Funds Dispute

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. James A. Rhodes may assume the role of peacemaker in the clash between two state boards over public school money.

The governor had attempted to stand aloof while the Controlling Board and the Board of Education were at loggerheads over a possible $8.5 million-$10 million deficit in the next quarterly school subsidy. Some estimates hit $18 million.

But political pressures could bring action by the chief executive to end the standoff reached by the boards.

Politicians shy from anything that might be used to accuse them of being against education, especially in an election year.

Although Rhodes is barely a year into a four - year term, candidates standing for election to the legislature in 1964 express concern over being drawn into the school money fuss. Several said they have been contacted by school interests.

The Cleveland Indians and Chicago White Sox have played exactly 500 ball against each other since the American League was founded in 1901. Each has won 678 games in their series.

Louis from the Mets, worked the first three innings against the Detroit Tigers at Lakeland, Fla.

Roger pitched three scoreless frames, allowing no hits, but the Cards failed to get him a run. St. Louis eventually won the game, 6-2, for its third straight Grapefruit League victory.

Over the winter Craig was hopeful that a change of scenery and uniforms might improve his record and his luck. With the Mets in 1963, Craig was victimized by lack of batting punch, something the Cards have in abundance but didn't display during his three-inning stint.

The 33-year-old hurler had a dismal 5-22 record last season, including 18 straight defeats, tying a National League mark. The Mets failed to score a run for him in 10 starts, five of which were 1-0 games. Eleven times he lost by one run.

Lew Burdette followed Craig to the mound and was the winning pitcher while Bobby Shantz finished up.

Craig didn't win, but Craig lost. The losing pitcher for Detroit was rookie Pete Craig, who gave up sixth-inning home runs by Gerry Buchek and Jeff Long. Roger was taking a shower by then.

The Mets received outfielder George Altman and rookie pitcher Bill Wakefield in exchange for Craig, and Altman went on a batting rampage for New York Monday. The south-paw slugger lashed out three triples and drove in four runs as the Mets and Philadelphia Phils played a 9-9 tie, called by agreement after 11 innings.

Elsewhere on the citrus and cactus circuits:

Milwaukee turned in its second straight shutout, blanking Baltimore 1-0 behind the two-hit pitching of Denny Lemaster, Bob Sadowski and Bob Tiefenauer. . . The Yankees won their first game under Manager Yogi Berra, 5-0 whitewashing of Houston, with Bill Stafford, Rolie Sheldon, Steve Hamilton and Tom Metcalf holding the Colts to one hit. . . Washington nipped Kansas City 3-2 as Jim King homered.

Floyd Robinson hit a grand-slam home run with two out in the ninth to give the White Sox a 5-4 victory over Pittsburgh. . . Homers by Art Shamsky and Johnny Edwards triggered Cincinnati to a 7-6 10-inning verdict over Minnesota. . . The Angels won their third in a row and sixth in nine starts in whipping the Cubs 12-5 and Bill Monbouquette's six scoreless innings featured Boston's 5-4 verdict over Cleveland.

Wilt's Temper Costs Frisco NBA Victory

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Wilt Chamberlain's temper could prove costly to the San Francisco Warriors.

A technical foul on The Big Dipper gave Philadelphia's Hal Greer the opportunity to sink a free throw with one second left.

South Side Club Sets Colt League Sign Up

Any boy interested in signing to play Colt League Baseball for the South Side Athletic Club team, are to attend a meeting at the Hookstown Fire hall, Thursday at 6 p. m. James Ashcroft, president, said that boys in the club area are eligible.

giving the 76ers a 111-110 victory over the Warriors Monday night at the Cow Palace.

Chamberlain had bounced the ball down in what most of the crowd thought was anger over hitting only one of two free throw attempts in the waning seconds as he knotted the score at 110-110. It turned out Wilt was angry because a teammate called time out when the club had used up all six allowable time outs.

The Philadelphia victory kept alive the St. Louis Hawks' slim hope of winning the Western Division title in the National Basketball Association.

Trailing by 1 1/2 games, St. Louis plays host to Detroit tonight while the 76ers play at Los Angeles and New York goes to Boston to face the Celtics, who already have won the Eastern Division crown.

San Francisco's magic number remains 1. If the Warriors win their finale against Philadelphia on Wednesday night, or if St. Louis loses either of its two remaining games, the Warriors become division champs for the first time since 1956 when they still called Philadelphia home.

If San Francisco loses its finale and St. Louis wins two, the clubs would tie for the division seat and meet in a one-game playoff to decide the champs.

Jackson, Storey Share Honors At OU Banquet

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—The wearin' o' the green came off proudly at Ohio University on St. Patrick's Eve, the green-and-white school colors showing proudly in acclaim of the Bobcat basketball team.

It was Monday night's annual basketball banquet, this time honoring the school's most illustrious cage squad.

Record scorer Jerry Jackson and team captain Paul Storey won top honors, sharing most valuable player recognition.

Jackson's scoring in the NCAA Midwest Regional final against Michigan Saturday gave him an OU career total of 1,205 points, bettering the record of 1,196 set by Bunk Adams in 1958-61.

Storey captured the Bobcats to a Mid-American Conference championship and the farthest advance any MAC team ever made in the NCAA tournament.

Don Hilt won an efficiency trophy and Charlie Gill the foul shooting accuracy award.

.350 Average Something Of Past, Aaron Believes

By JOE REICHLER Associated Press Sports Writer

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Henry Aaron, who owns the highest lifetime batting average of any currently active major leaguer, believes baseball has seen the last of the .350 hitters.

"I just don't see how anybody can hit for that high an average anymore, with the kind of pitching we've got to hit against today," said the Milwaukee slugger. "When I broke in with the Braves 11 years ago, you were practically certain that one or two guys would hit .350 or .360. Those days are gone."

The 30-year-old Aaron, generally regarded as the best hitter in baseball, owns a .320 average. He batted .355 just five years ago, a figure that gave him one of his two batting titles.

"Today's pitchers are better than any I've seen since I came up to the big leagues. Back in 1954 and '55, a club had one, maybe two outstanding pitchers. After you got by them, you usually had one or two easy ones in every series."

"Now, every club has at least three top flight starters. As if that's not enough, they reach into the bullpen and throw a pitcher at you who is just as tough, if not tougher."

The sweet-swinging right-handed hitter, whose .319 figure last year barely missed winning the National League batting crown, cited the Houston Colts as an example.

"This club finished ninth," he said. "But it had three outstanding pitchers in Ken Johnson, Dick Farrell and Bob Bruce. And that guy in the bullpen (Hal Woodeshick) is no slouch, either. That's a tipoff on what kind of pitching to expect in this league."

Abe Woodson, Ballman Lead KO Returns

NEW YORK (AP)—The run-back of a kickoff may be just the start of action to most pro football fans, but National Football League coaches consider it so important they set up special teams just for this play. That's why speedsters like Abe Woodson and Gary Ballman are considered so important in the NFL.

Woodson, the little San Francisco scooter, won the NFL kickoff return title in 1963 for the third time, official statistics showed today, and Pittsburgh's Ballman was a close second on the basis of average distance of returns.

The league average for run-backs, mostly by specialists, was a whopping 23.4 yards.

Woodson, who set a couple of league records in 1962 by returning 37 kickoffs, 1,157 yards, didn't reach those figures. But his 29 returns for 935 yards upped his average to 32.2 yards. Ballman's average in second was 31.7.

Woodson scored three touchdowns on kickoff returns, one of 103 yards—no mean feat for an unsuccessful team. Tim Brown of the Philadelphia Eagles, the only other player to run back a kickoff 100 yards last season, edged Woodson in total yardage 945-935. Brown and Bill Butler of Minnesota each returned 33 kicks.

Bruce Named Athletic Director At Wooster

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP)—Robert M. Bruce, a 1939 graduate of Wooster College, is returning to his alma mater as athletic director and chairman of the Physical Education Department.

His appointment, effective Sept. 1, was announced Monday. He will succeed E. M. (Mose) Hole, current chairman of the Physical Education Department who is retiring after 50 years at the college.

OFF THE RECORD

"Great Scott -- I thought I took you off that diet weeks ago."

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I prepare my own good furniture polish?

A. By adding two tablespoons of olive oil and one tablespoon of vinegar to a quart of warm water. Keep this solution warm while using. It will wash off dirt and dust, and leave a light oil treatment on the wood. Rub dry with a clean, soft cloth.

Q. What is a good rule to follow regarding the use of the proper length of nails for nailing boards firmly?

A. For a firmer hold, it is good to use a nail three times as long as the thickness of the board being nailed.

Q. How can I cover scratches on dark-colored furniture?

A. Apply tincture of iodine on a swab of cotton that is tightly fastened to a lead pencil. After the retouched area is dry, rub it over with furniture polish, and the scratches will be hardly noticeable.

Q. How can I remove white stains on furniture caused by water and heat?

A. Mix a half-and-half solution of turpentine and linseed oil, dip a cloth into this, and rub over the spots.

Q. How can I remove scorch stains from fabrics?

A. Scorch stains are, of course, burnt places, and sometimes they are impossible to remove. Brushing scorched spots on woollens lightly with emery cloth may improve their appearance.

Q. What can I do if oil from my sewing machine has spotted the fabric on which I have been sewing?

A. Apply immediately a liberal coating of talcum powder, let this stand for 15 to 20 minutes, then brush off. Repeat the process, if necessary.

Junior Editors Quiz on FROGS

QUESTION: What is the difference between a frog and a toad?

ANSWER: Frogs and toads both belong to the same order of tailless amphibians and their structure is very similar. In general, toads (1) have warty skins, live on land, are heavier and clumsier than frogs, and have larger eyes. Frogs (2) have smoother skins and like water or wet places--like the bullfrog we illustrate. The Spadefoot Toad (3) has less warts and is more slender than other toads. It has a trick of digging backwards into the earth, using its heavy rear feet. The delicate little Spring Peeper (4), one of the Tree or Chorus Frogs, has (like most frogs and toads) a sac under his chin which he inflates to make a musical piping in the spring. Tadpoles of toads (5, upper left) and frogs (right) are too similar to be told apart. One difference between these creatures is that if an enemy threatens a toad, he closes his eyes and tries to push it away with his front feet. But the frog has marvelously developed hind legs (6) and if you try to catch him he'll take to the air and generally get away.

FOR YOU TO DO: A toad can secrete a poisonous fluid from his warts, although this, does not cause warts on a human skin. The toad has a remarkable hinged tongue he shoots out to catch insects. See if you can sneak up on a feeding toad and watch how his tongue works, as the little girl in (4) is checking up on the Spring Peeper.

Janet Urbelis of Amsterdam, N. Y., wins today's grand prize of a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review and you too may win a set.

Village Taxes Hit $1 Million

Total taxes paid by residents of the nine villages in Columbiana County hit $1,067,686 during 1962, it was shown today in a report issued at Columbus by State Auditor Roger W. Tracy.

Total taxes paid, by communities, according to Tracy were: Columbiana, $496,845; Hanover, $9,623; Leetonia, $176,593; Lisbon, $177,287; New Waterford, $45,347; Rogers, $7,935; Salineville, $60,053; Summitville, $7,730; and Washingtonville, $36,043.

Virtually all the totals represented real estate taxes. However, these sums were collected in special assessments: Columbiana, $1,796; Lisbon, $3,537; and Washingtonville, $9,002.

The subdivisions received $28,923 from the local government fund — a distribution of state taxes.

Total receipts from other sources were: Gasoline tax, $49,720; auto license fees, $42,121; liquor permit fees, $12,150; water systems, $156,732.

Miscellaneous sources, $369,970; fines and costs, $21,460; cigarette vendors licenses, $2,274, and other sources, $180,881.

63 Offer Blood, Kidneys To Aid Michigan Youth

CLEVELAND (AP) — Kidney disease struck hard at young Allan Scott Pert Jr. last summer. A doctor told the boy's parents to take him home to the house in Garden City, Mich., and make him comfortable. There was nothing else they could do.

"They told us that he was going to die within a couple of weeks," said Allan's father.

Today Allan and his parents have renewed hope. Developments in medical science and the generosity of scores of people willing to donate kidneys and blood have given Allan a chance to live.

Ernest Locsei, director of the Northern Ohio chapter of the Kidney Disease Foundation, issued an appeal for donors. By Monday night 63 persons had offered kidneys to the freckle-faced, 11-year-old youngster who was brought unconscious to Cleveland Clinic Feb. 1.

There were 60 offers to donate the blood needed during an operation.

Today In History

By The Associated Press
Today is Tuesday, March 17, the 77th day of 1964. There are 289 days left in the year. Today is St. Patrick's Day.

Today's highlight in history:
On this date in 1756, the first St. Patrick's Day celebration in New York City was held in the form of a breakfast at the Crown and Thistle Inn at Whitehall. In 1779 the first St. Patrick's Day parade was staged by 400 Irish volunteers who marched behind a British band from lower Broadway to a tavern on the bowery.

On this date
In 1836, the Republic of Texas adopted a constitution.

In 1897, Bob Fitzsimmons defeated James J. Corbett in 14 rounds at Carson City, Nev., for the world heavyweight boxing title.

In 1912, the Campfire Girls organization was founded at Lake Sebago, Maine, by Mrs. Luther Halsey Gulick.

In 1942, Gen. Douglas MacArthur arrived in Australia from the Philippines to become supreme allied commander for the Southwest Pacific Theater of operations during World War II.

In 1950, nearly all of Franklin D. Roosevelt's presidential papers were opened to researchers and historians — the first time in U. S. history that presidential papers had been made available so soon after death.

Ten years ago — Japanese police attempted to find and remove from public sale 12,000 pounds of fish landed from a vessel which had been showered with radioactive ash from U.S. atomic tests at Bikini Atoll.

Whale steaks and stew, rich in protein, are considered a delicacy by the Japanese.

Wife Of Glenn Continues Drive For Ailing Mate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — County seat kaffee klatsches, luncheons and receptions were on tap again today as Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr.'s wife, Annie, continued blazing a campaign trail for the ailing Democratic senatorial hopeful.

Circleville, Chillicothe, Waverly and Portsmouth were on the timetable of Mrs. Glenn and the wife of another astronaut, Rene Carpenter.

Annie, an admitted stutterer, left the formal speaking to Rene — Scott Carpenter's wife — as two weeks of traveling the state for get-togethers with Democratic women began Monday. But Mrs. Glenn was not at all reticent in speaking personally with most of the dozens of women who turned out to get acquainted.

She declined smilingly, however, to touch on any political matters. Her husband has said he will not disclose his views on issues until he receives his retirement from the Marine Corps. This is due April 1 if Glenn recovers as expected from a concussion suffered in a bathroom fall in his Columbus apartment last month. He is in a military hospital at San Antonio, Tex.

Monday's sortie carried Mrs. Glenn and Mrs. Carpenter southeast from Columbus along U.S. 33 to Lancaster, Logan and Athens. Today's route follows U.S. 23 through Southern Ohio.

Construction Tie-Up Averted At Toledo

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — The threat of a city-wide construction tie-up has ended with the calling off of work at a building project which was picketed in a dispute over the hiring of non-union workers.

Work was called off late Monday at The Andersons' Maumee River grain elevator, site of a $1.1 million expansion project, after a clash between police and pickets at the site.

Harold Anderson, senior partner of the company, said it was "unsafe for our men to continue work" and operations were being halted temporarily in order to protect the employees "and also in the community interest."

Educator Claimed

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP)—Dr. Ivey Foreman Lewis, 81, retired dean of the University of Virginia and a founder of the Virginia Academy of Science, died Monday in his home after a lingering illness.

Hits Trade With Reds

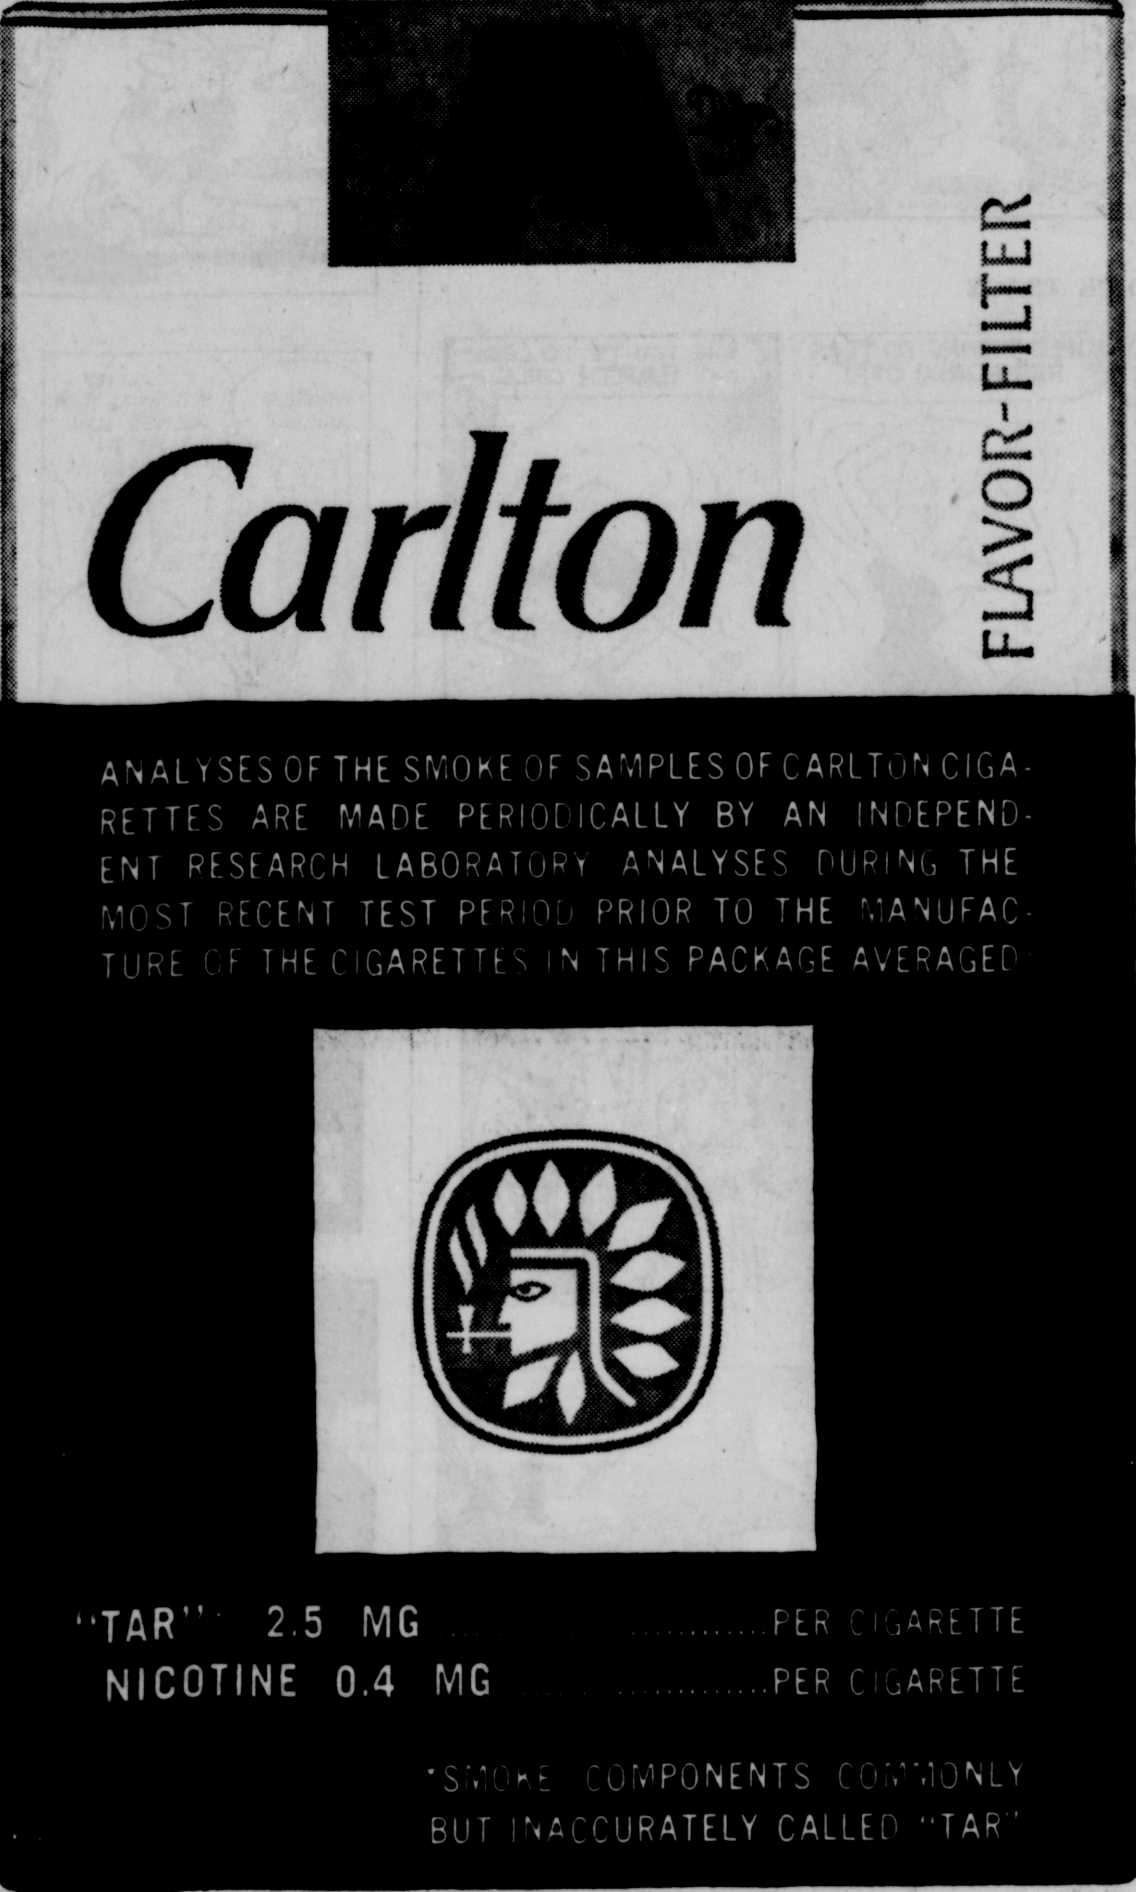

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, takes a dim view of relaxing trade barriers against Communist countries. Lausche, in hearings Monday before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, questioned whether the United States should have one policy of dealing with European Communist countries while shutting off trade with Cuba, Red China, North Korea and North Viet Nam.

Fire Destroys Plant

WADSWORTH, Ohio (AP) — The double quonset-hut plant of the Plasta-Craft Co. here was destroyed by fire of undetermined origin Monday night. The loss was estimated at $60,000 by Fire Chief Carroll Everhard.
